ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The task of acknowledging the incalculable debt of appreciation, which is owed to many, is a very pleasing facet of thesis writing. It gives me immense pleasure in thanking those who were associated with me in completion of this work.

Words should be inadequate to convey my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Professor Rajbir Singh, Head, Department of Psychology, Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak for his incessant encouragement, affectionate guidance at all the stages of this work. His enthusiasm, analytical outlook and constructive criticism contributed a lot in presenting this work in its present form. I shall forever consider it a privilege to have worked under him.

I am also thankful to all teaching and non-teaching staff of Psychology Department, M.D. University, Rohtak for their support and encouragement during the period of my study.

I also owe my pious duty to express my gratitude to my parents and my brother Mr. Yashbir without whose blessings, I could not have completed my research work. They have been a constant source of inspiration to boost up my morale in my academic pursuits. Their affection and blessings have been the real pillars of my confidence.

I must confess that the completion and even carrying out of this work would have been impossible without the encouragement, moral support and cooperation by my husband Mr. Mahender Singh Bagi, Lecturer in History, and my in-laws. I can never thank them enough to have made my work possible.

My debt is special towards my kid Mr. Mahir who spared me for such a long duration to complete this research task.

My deepest appreciation goes to my friend Dr. Kusum Lata, Lecturer in History, University College, Kurukshetra, for her valuable help at every stage of the work.

I am specially indebted to the staff of the various libraries such as M.D. University, Rohtak; Shri Baba Mastnath Ayurvedic College, Asthal Bohar, Rohtak and Kurukshetra University Library.

I am also thankful to Mr. Raj Kumar Pahwa and Mr. Jayant Kumar M/s S.S. Computer, Near Jat College, Rohtak for the typing and beautiful presentation of this thesis.

Finally, I thank Almighty who made so many to extend their helping hands in accomplishment of my work successfully.
