This Year research on the Present investigation has been indeed very exciting and stimulating to me. Not only I came to identify the significant problems in my area of research, but also encountered alike problems which claim attention for research. I am greatly indebted to my parent. without him blessing, I would not have achieved this much success.

I want to express a word of thanks to the students who are involved in my present investigation.

Thanks are due to my guide Dr. Dinesh A. Dadhania, Professor, V.M. Maheta Municipal College, Jamnagar, Who took a keen interest in my work and guided and co-operated in my work and guided and co-operated me throughout the year. I am quite sure that without his kind help and scholarly guidance, I would not have achieved this much Success.

I want to express a word of thanks to the my wife Dr. Madhu Fadadu and our loving Son Shamik, Who co-operated me throughout the research work.

Thanks are due to my College Principal Dr. R.G. Bhuva and Dr. S.D. Mori, Principal Smt. B.V. Dhanak College, Bagasara. Who enthusiastically co-operated me throughout research work.

My heartfett gratitude is also directed to my friend Dr. Jayendra Jarsania, Dr. H.L. Vala, Who have helped and co-operated me.

I want to express a word of thanks to my Teaching and Administrative Staff.

My gratitude is also directed to all my friends who have helped and co-operated me directly or indirectly.

The whole burden of typing out this thesis fell on Devubha and Virsinh, who managed to do the work fairly, efficiently in a remarkable short time, for which I am most grateful to him.
