

Contents

Chapter 1  Introduction 1
   i.  Indian Diaspora Literature: An Overview ii. Women Writers of the Indian Diaspora
   iii. To Know Self: The Concept of Identity Crisis

Chapter 2  Kamala Markandaya 41
   i.  Kamala Markandaya: Life and Works ii.  Nectar in a Sieve: Situating Rukmani within the Realms of Memory and Identity iii.  Possession: To Define is to Confine
   iv.  Where is ‘Here’?: The Cultural Clash and Identity Crisis in The Nowhere Man

Chapter 3  Bharati Mukherjee 87
   i.  Bharati Mukherjee: Life and Works ii.  The Tiger’s Daughter: An Endeavour to Regain the Lost Identity iii.  The Exposé of Psychological Isolation and Suppression of Identity in Wife
   iv.  Jasmine: The Chronicle of Re-inventing New Identities

Chapter 4  Jhumpa Lahiri 134
   i.  Jhumpa Lahiri: Life and Works ii.  Diaspora and Cross-Cultural Identity: A Study of Interpreter of Maladies
   iii.  There’s Much in a Name: Gogol’s Quest for Self in The Namesake
   iv.  Immigrant Psyche and Dilemma of Identity in Unaccustomed Earth

Chapter 5  Conclusion 189

Bibliography 202

Appendix 211

Research Paper Published