I would like to thank my guide Professor Dr. J H Khan for allowing me to work my way through many muddles. Like a true master you showed me that the way is through self-realization. Thank you sir for making me understand my strengths.

Dr. Minnie Mattheew, friend and mentor. In your Silence I could not read much; thank you for bringing me to my ability when the time was ripe.

Sonu Singh, dear husband- thank you for your sage like patience and unconditional love.

Tejveer, beloved son- thank you for giving me all the time that I needed to finish this thesis.

Manveen Singh, bosom pal- thank you for your pro-active ways which took care of all my needs and for always being there.

Thank you Mom- Dad, Rawa and Ronnie for your constant mental support .

I am grateful to my parents-in-law for their loving warmth; for allowing me to have both physical and mental freedom to work in peace.

In the end a mammoth task such as this would not have been possible without my Master and God’s grace.
