(a) Sanskrit Works

Ṣaḍdarśanasamuccaya of Haribhadrasūri, with the Commentaries of Tarka-rahasyadīpika of Guṇaratnasūri and Laghuvṛttī of Somatilakesūri and Avacūrni, ed., Mahendrakumar Jain, (1944), Delhi: Bhandiya Jnanapith Publication.

Sāṅkhyaatvakaumudī of Vācaspatimiśra with Viśṭi and Tatvacandrika
Hindi Commentary, ed., Om Prakash Pandeya, (1981), Varanasi: Chowkhamba Saraswatibhawan.

----------- with Translation of Ganganath Jha. ed., M. M. Patkar, (2004),
With an Introduction and Critical Notes of Har Dutt Sharma,
Delhi: Chaukhamba Sanskrit Pratishthan.

Suśrutasaṁhitā with the Nibandhasaṅgraha Commentary of Ḍalhaṇācārya and the Nyāyacandrikā or Pañcika commentary of Gāyadāsācārya on the Nidānasthāna, eds., Trikōmji Jādavji
Ācārya and Nārāyaṇ Rāmācārya Kāvyatīrtha, (2008), Varanasi: Chowkhamba Krishnadas Academy.

----------- with English Translation of Text and Ḍalhaṇa's Commentary along with Critical notes, ed., P. V. Sharma, (2004), 3 Vols, Varanasi: Chaukhambha Visvabharati.

(b) ENGLISH WORKS

Alavi, Seema, (2007). Islam and Healing- loss and Recovery of an Indo-Muslim Medical tradition 1600-1900, Delhi: Permanent Black.

Epistemology, Calcutta: Punthi Pustak.

Athavale, V. B. (2004). Basic Principles of Ayurveda, Delhi:
Chaukhamba Sanskrit Pratishthan.

Ballantyne, James, (2003). ed., The Sāṃkhya Aphorisms of Kapila with extracts from Vijnānabhikṣu's Commentary, Delhi: Munshiram Manoharlal.

Munshiram Manoharlal Publishers.

Manohar Publishers.

Indian National Science Academy.

............... (1993). What is Living and Dead in Indian Philosophy, Delhi: People's Publishing.

(c) HINDI WORKS

d) MALAYALAM WORKS

e) JOURNALS
