ACKNOWLEDGMENT

There are number of Corporate Crimes that have come into light now days. When we turn the pages of history the most important incident will stuck in our mind, Bhopal Gas tragedy, this is the biggest example of Corporate Crime and also regarding liability. The incident arise the liability of corporation and up to which extnet corporation must be penalize. But the result is nill. It is therefore, this research work is contextually appropriate at time when the role of companies in society has become conspicuous.

It is solely and exclusive due to the blessing of my parents, the merciful, the benevolent and Compassionat that I have been able to complete this research work. I acknowledge my profound gratitude to my Guide, Dr. Smita Vyas, Assistant professor, Department of Law, Hemchandrachary North Gujarat University Patan. Without her invaluable guidance my research work would not have been materialized. Here I express my special thanks to Dr. Jagdip Nanavaty, Principal of Sheth M.N. Law college, Patan for his guidance and encouragement during my research work.

Research work is indeed a Herculean task Particulary in the field of law; I must mention here my irredeemable indebtdness to my sister Mrs. Sharda Ketan Devrekar who helped me a lot in computerzing entire thesis.

My deepest thanks go to my husband Krishna, who boosted my moral and inspired me during my entire research. I express my special thanks to my father Shri Bhagwandas, My father in law Shri Sudhakar Sonavana and my family member for supporting me during my entire research work. I owe a special word for Jinay my mischierous but brilliant son. All were moving spritit behind my research work and helped me a lot in entire thesis.