ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Success is the progressive realization of a worthy goal. It is impossible to achieve success without the blessings of almighty God and the elders. Firstly I owe hand folded thanks to the almighty, the supreme GOD for everything in form or kind.

The work presented in this thesis would not have been possible without my close association with many people who were always there when I needed them the most. I take this opportunity to acknowledge them and extend my sincere gratitude for helping me make this Ph.D. thesis a possibility.

Both motivation and guidance leads to success. I deem it as my good luck and golden opportunity, to work under the guidance of Dr. Minakshi Vashist, Professor & Head, Deptt. of Genetics. I would like to express my special appreciation and thanks to my advisor, she has been a tremendous mentor for me. I would like to thank her for encouraging my research and her advice on both research as well as on my career have been priceless. Words are ineffable to pay gratitude on the zenith of splendor, for her versatile and adroit guidance, kind treatment, sustained interest, encouragement, constructive and logical criticism, timely admonition and strenuous effort throughout period of study and provide the conductive atmosphere for my work without any hitch will remain evergreen in my memory. The light kindled by her will ever shine.

I am extremely thankful to Prof. J.P. Yadav (Deptt. of Genetics) for his active cooperation and sincere help given at all the steps of my work. I express my thanks to all the faculty members of Department of Genetics for constant encouragement and needful suggestions.

My Special thanks to Dr. M.G. Vashist, Senior Professor Unit Head, Deptt. of Surgery, Pt. B.D. Sharma University of Health Sciences, Rohtak for his valuable guidance, concrete and creative suggestions and for providing information and necessary facilities.

I pay my sincere thanks to Dr. Vijay Malik, Dr. Nitin Singhal, Dr. Abhishek and Dr. Amit, Deptt. of Surgery, Pt. B.D. Sharma University of Health Sciences,
Rohtak for helping me in identification of the varicose veins patients and for taking the samples of the patients.

I express my heart-felt gratitude to Dr. Khalid M Al- Batayneh, Department of Biological Sciences, Yarmouk University, Irbid, Jordan, for providing me the research protocol regarding molecular analysis of varicose veins patients from his published work. I have to thank him for his valuable suggestions in my research work which could not be possible without his help.

My very special thanks to all patients, their parents and guardians for kind co-operation.

I am sincerely thankful to M.D. University, Rohtak for providing all necessary facilities.

I avail this opportunity to thank to Pushpa, Hari Prakash and Jitender, non-teaching staff of Department of Genetics for their invaluable assistance in every possible way.

I extend my sincere word of thanks to Mrs. Kirti Grow, who has always been there, as a best friend. I would never be able to pay back the love and affection showered upon by her. No matter, whatever the situations were, she was always around me. The work done with her as a co-worker has taught me how a person can succeed in achieving what seems impossible to begin with…thank you dear for everything.

My heartfelt thanks to my friends, fellow labmates and juniors, Radha Rathee, Khushboo, Sangeeta, Kapil, Vandana, Geetanjali and Nidhi for always being there and bearing with me the good and bad times during my wonderful days of Ph.D. I avail this opportunity to express my thanks to Mr. Tilak Raj for being always helpful with smile on face.

My acknowledgement will never be complete without the special mention of my lab seniors who have taught me the lab culture and have lived by example to make me understand the hard facts of life. I would like to acknowledge Dr. Ritu Yadav, Dr. Neelkamal, Dr. Ashok Kumar, Dr. Shivani Kachroo and Dr. Amit Kumar, for all their support and motivation during the initial days of my stay in the lab.
I am deeply obliged to my family for their constant encouragement. This thesis is dream of my father Randhir Sharma and my mom Nirmala Devi, who always stand by me. They always taught me never to give up and think positive even in worst. They have instilled values in me that will get me through life’s hardest challenges. Their support and encouragement boost up my confidence throughout my research. I also take this opportunity to thank my brother Upesh Kumar who has helped me in his own way to make this work possible. I extend my respect to my paternal and maternal grandparents and all elders in the family. A special thanks for my dearest aunt Mrs. Savita as she has always been a constant source of inspiration, strength and moral support throughout my life. I don’t imagine a life without their love and blessings. Thank you mom, dad, uncle and aunty for showing faith in me and giving me liberty to choose what I desired. I consider myself the luckiest in the world to have such a supportive family, standing behind me with their love and support.

A special thanks to my lovely in laws family. Words cannot express how grateful I am to my dearest grandfather, mother-in law, father-in-law and my sister-in-law for all of the sacrifices that you’ve made on my behalf. Your prayer for me was what sustained me this far.

I have reserved this last column to say very special thanks to very special person in my life. No word can adequately express my gratitude to my husband Mr. Vijay Kumar, who always provided me with the required emotional strength to cope with the mental stress, I experienced during this period. He was always around at times I thought that it is impossible to continue, he helped me to keep things in perspective. It was just impossible to achieve this without his faith, confidence and moral support. He is a proof that fate has definitely dealt me the wining hand. Thanks for everything.

Not all names and emotions can be expressed in words. I take this opportunity to apologize to all those friends whose names have not appeared here.

Lastly thank the Almighty for giving me the strength and patience to work through all these years.

Shiksha Sharma
