ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This study owes much to many persons. I am indebted to Professor B.N. Sharma, for his kind interest in the progress of my work. My thanks are due to Dr. G.S. Tripathi who has always been helpful to me. I am grateful to all the other teachers of the Department of History. They all helped me quite willingly, whenever, I was held up or had to face any problem.

I am thankful to Dr. R.R. Pateriya for all the support that he gave me when I needed it most. My discussions of several problems involved in the study with Dr. P.C. Pradhan, Assistant Director National Archives of India, have proved to be very fruitful.

But most of all, I owe a deep debt of gratitude to Dr. D.B. Trivedi, MA, PH.D., (London) who presided over this study with limitless patience. He pulled me out of countless pitfalls and traps. But for his help, advice and care, this work would never have been completed.

I am beholden to the officers and staff of the National Archives of India, New Delhi, Teen Murti Library, New Delhi, Jawaharlal Nehru University, Library, New Delhi, Central Secretariat Library, New Delhi, Jawaharlal Nehru Police Academy Library, Sagar, Jawaharlal Nehru Library, Dr. Hari Singh Gour University, Sagar. They have always been courteous and ready to help.

I am indebted to the Government of Madhya Pradesh for awarding me a Scholarship for three years for pursuing my research work. It proved to be a positive help in enabling me to be free from all the financial worries.

My thanks are due to my father Shri Amir Chand Jain and my mother Shrimati Shanti Devi Jain, who were the constant source of encouragement and help, both moral and financial, in carrying this work to conclusion.

Finally, I am thankful to my husband, Sanjaya for having borne with more than he would ever care to admit to see the present work completed.
