ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Before expressing my sincere appreciation and respect to all those who made this study possible, I want to first extend thanks to Allah, the Almighty, who provided me with many blessings and gave me health, strength and patience to complete this thesis.

I would like to acknowledge the support and dedication of my academic guide, Professor B. Shivaraj, Bahadur Institute of Management Sciences, University of Mysore, Mysore, who taught me the real meaning of focus and gave me a never-failing stream of encouragement throughout the thesis preparation process. I would like to express my profound gratitude for opening the door for me to become a Ph.D candidate at this institute.

I would like to express my gratitude to Professor D. Anand, Chairman, Bahadur Institute of Management Sciences, University of Mysore, Mysore for his useful comments and suggestions.

I sincerely extend my appreciation to all faculty members of B.N Bahadur Institute of Management Sciences, University of Mysore, Mysore, particularly to Prof. Aisha M Sherrif and Dr. S. J. Manjunath, for their cooperation.

I would like to thank Mr. Jagadish Bahadore, Placement Officer and Mr. Prasada, Liaison Officer and all non teaching staff members of B. N. Bahadur Institute of Management Sciences, University of Mysore for extending their cooperation.

I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to Professor M.V. Srinivasa Gowda, currently Visiting Professor, SBM Chair, DoS in Economics and Co-opn, University of Mysore, Mysore, for his time in reading drafts and providing invaluable suggestions for improving this work. I am indebted for all his scholarly comments and for his generous help and encouragement despite his very busy schedule. Special thanks go to Professor H.S. Sadath Ali Khan for his valuable suggestions and comments during the course of my study. Special thanks go to Professor Abdul Aziz for all the help he rendered to me. I want to thank him for his willingness to hear and for his sharp comments. I would also like to thank Dr. K.P. Suresh, Biostatistician for his kind help in the statistical analysis of data.

I gratefully acknowledge the financial support of the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research in Yemen for carrying out my research. This source of funding greatly aided me during my research work.

My heartfelt thanks go to all the friends who have contributed in one way or the other to make my dream come true. I wish to express my sincere gratitude to members of my family who have, in various ways, borne the real cost of this journey. I would like to express my graduate to my father Abdullah Ahmed and my mother Annia M. Ali for their prayers, encouragement, patience and sacrifice. Thanks are also due to my sisters and brother for their love and support. I thank my lovely wife Luna for her support during the good and bad days of my graduate studies. I would also like to thank my children, Ammar, Esra and Hussam, for their patience. I remain grateful to all of you for your sacrifices.
