I wish to express my profound debt of gratitude to my revered and learned research guide Dr. Bino Thomas, Associate Professor, Post Graduate Department of Commerce, Bishop Abraham Memorial College, Thuruthicad, Pathanamthitta, without whose able guidance, advice, and encouragement, it would not have been possible to submit this work in its present form. He has been prompt, sincere and deeply interested in my research. His incessant persuasion, meticulous attention and brotherly affection have been the chief contributing factors to the successful completion of this work. In fact, I never adequately express my indebtedness to him in words.

I am thankful to Prof. Harry Cleetus, Principal, St. Albert’s College, Ernakulam, Dr. Rajagopalan Nair, Former Head, and Dr. A. M. Viswambharan, Head of the Post Graduate Department of Commerce and Research Centre, St. Albert’s College, Ernakulam for permitting me to undertake the research work in the department and for all the facilities and help given to me. I am also grateful for all the help received from the staff members of the office and Library of the St. Albert’s College.

I am immensely obliged to record my profound sense of gratitude to Dr. S. Kevin, Director, TKM Institute of Management (Former Pro Vice-Chancellor, University of Kerala) for his valuable advice during the preparation of the thesis.

I am extremely grateful to Prof. K. Kalyanaraman, formerly the faculty member in the Department of Statistics, University of Kerala, Thiruvananthapuram, and presently working as the applied statistician in the research centre of Commerce of K.G.College, Pampady, Kottayam, for the valuable assistance provided in analysis of data with appropriate statistical tools.

I gratefully remember the help of Dr. P. Antony George, Post Graduate and Research Department of Commerce, St. Thomas College, Kozhencherry in the selection of the topic of this study. I am also heavily indebted and grateful to Dr. Harikumar P. N., Associate Professor, Post Graduate Department of Commerce, Catholicate College, Pathanamthitta, for his constructive suggestions in analysis of data, and incessant persuasion throughout the preparation of the thesis.
I avail this opportunity to thank the librarians of all libraries I have visited to collect necessary literature for the completion of the work.

I am grateful to Prof. V.K. Moothat, former Professor of English, University College, Thiruvananthapuram, and Prof. Reeja Jose, Associate Professor of English, St. Peter’s College, Ernakulam, for their meticulous reading and improvement of the text of the thesis into its present form. I gratefully remember the help extended to me by Smt. Siji George in data entry.

I extend my thanks to Sri. C. V. Jacob, Manager and Dr. Thampy Abraham, Principal, St Peter’s College, Kolenchery and Prof. Joy C. George and Prof. Joy K. Paul, former Principals. Sincere thanks are also recorded for all the help received from the staff members of the office.

I am thankful to Prof. Heleny M.Y, Head of P.G and Research Department of Commerce and former head of the department Prof. Jorry Mathai for all the facilities and help given to me. I am also thankful to all other faculty colleagues of the P.G and Research Department of Commerce, St. Peter’s College, Kolenchery, for the encouragement given to me for the completion of the work.

I gratefully remember my Mother Smt. Annamma Jacob, my wife Dr. Linu Mathew, my son Jacob Mathew, my father in law Shri. C. V. Paulose and my mother in law Smt. Kunjunjamma Paulose, for their encouragement, cooperation and help throughout the work. No other moment would be more appropriate to place on record my sincere gratitude to Dr. Suma Bino Thomas for motivating me to complete the research. I also extend my thanks to shri.Unni, minitek for binding the thesis.

Above all, my heart rises in gratitude to My God Almighty for all his blessings showered up on me all through the days of this research work, before and after.

Mathew Jacob