Contents

Acknowledgement i
Acronyms and Abbreviations iii
List of Tables xi
List of Figures xiv
List of Boxes xvii

1 Introduction 1

1.1 Genesis of Gender Budget Initiatives 2
1.2 The Economic Costs of Gender Inequality 4
1.3 Gender Equality as a Policy Priority 5
1.4 Gender and Development 9
1.5 Engendering Macroeconomics for Sustainable Human Development 10
1.6 Budgeting For Gender Equality – India and Gujarat 13
1.7 Rationale for the study 16
1.8 Methodology and Data Source 18
1.9 Roadmap to the study 20

2 Gender Analysis: Rationale, Basic Concepts and Tools 22

2.1 What is Gender? 23
  2.1.1 Gender Roles 24
  2.1.2 Gender Needs 25
  2.1.3 Gender Differences/Gaps/Inequalities 26
2.2 Measuring Gender Disparities – Indicators 29
2.3 What are Government Budgets? 31
2.4 Gender Budgeting 33
2.5 Rationale for Gender Budgeting 35
  2.5.1 Gender Equality 35
  2.5.2 Accountability/Transparency and Participation 36
  2.5.3 Efficiency and Effectiveness 37
  2.5.4 Good Governance 37
2.6 Applying Analytical Tools of Gender Budgeting: Integrating Gender into the National Budget 39

3 Review of Literature and Initiatives 43

3.1 Conceptual Framework – Integrating Gender in Budgets 45
  3.1.1 Overview Material 45
  3.1.2 Public Expenditure – Public Revenue 47
3.1.3 Gender Inequalities and Economic Growth 49
3.1.4 Various strategies to facilitate Gender Budgeting 50
3.1.5 Fiscal Decentralisation 52
3.2 Case Studies of Gender Budgeting 53
3.2.1 Case Study Collections 53
3.2.2 National, Regional and Local Experiences 56
3.2.3 Country Initiatives 61
3.3 Gender Budgeting Initiatives – Practical Aspects 66
3.4 Multilateral/ Bilateral Organisation/ NGOs and Gender Budget 68
3.5 Tools, Guidelines, Manuals, Handbooks for GBI 71

4 Gender Budgeting - Issues 75

4.1 Conceptual Issues 77
4.1.1 Gender and Women 77
4.1.2 Don't Men have Gender too? 78
4.2 Implementation Issues 79
4.2.1 Crossing Conceptual Boundaries 79
4.2.2 Gathering Budgetary Information 79
4.2.3 Gender as a Cross Sectoral Issue 80
4.2.4 GBI – Inside/Outside Government 80
4.2.5 Different Goals for Different Stakeholders 84
4.2.6 Training 85
4.2.7 Policy Evaporation During Planning and Implementation Cycle 85
4.3 Methodological Issues 86
4.3.1 Measuring Gender Indicators 86
4.3.2 Methods Based on Models of Intra-Household Decision Making 87
4.3.3 Female-Headed Household 87
4.3.4 Difficulties in Valuing Women's Work 87
4.3.5 Faulty Sectoral Approach 88
4.3.6 Fiscal Decentralisation and Devolution 89
4.3.7 Benefit Incidence Analysis 89
4.3.8 Impact on Revenue and Expenditure 91
4.4 Analytical Issues 91
4.4.1 Lack of Availability of Gender-Disaggregated Data 91
4.4.2 Too Narrow Focus of GRBs 93
4.4.3 Tools and Analytical Frameworks 94
4.5 Other Issues 95
4.5.1 Financial Investment for Gender Equality 95
4.5.2 Effects on Expenditure Allocations & Revenue Measures 96
4.5.3 Issues Due to Globalisation 96
4.5.4 Challenges in Donor Financing 97
7 Gendered Analysis of Budgets of Gujarat and India

7.1 Budgetary Situation – India and Gujarat
7.2 Women Specifically Targeted Expenditure: India and Gujarat
7.3 Pro-Women Allocations: India and Gujarat
7.4 Findings of the Gendered Analysis of the Budgets

8 Conclusion, Alternatives and Suggestions

8.1 Overview of the Present Study
8.2 Alternatives
8.3 Suggestions
8.4 Limitation/Scope of the Study

References On Gender Budgeting

Annexures:
1. Gender Budgeting Initiatives in India and Gujarat
2. Structure and Classification of Budget of Gujarat State
3. Brief Explanations of Selected Women-specific and Pro-women Programmes/Schemes