ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am obliged to the authorities of Doctor Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar for giving me an opportunity to take up this study. I am also indebted to Dr. Baijnath Sharma, Professor and Head, Department of History in this University for providing me necessary facilities and taking keen interest in the progress of my work.

I consider it a privilege to express my sincere and deep gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. C. B. Trivedi, Reader in History in this University for his valuable guidance. His constant interest and help were a source of great inspiration to me.

I am beholden to Dr. G. B. Tripathi, Reader in History, and Dr. Pratap Chandra, Reader in Philosophy in this University for going through the manuscript meticulously and making valuable suggestions. I also express my sincere thanks to Dr. B. B. Shrivastava, Lecturer in History, Doctor Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar, for his valuable suggestions.

I am extremely grateful to the Late Pandit Kashi Prasad Pandey and other freedom fighters, their descendants, relatives and friends for the interview and valuable information they gave me.

I also express my most sincere thanks to Dr. D. E. U. Baker, Professor of History, St. Stephen's College, Delhi, and Dr. S. R. Bakshi of Indian Council of Historical Research,
New Delhi for their valuable suggestions and inspiration.

I owe much to the Governments of India, Madhya Pradesh and Maharashtra for allowing me access to their records. I am thankful to the Librarians and staff of the Jawaharlal Nehru Library, Doctor Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar, the National Archives of India, Nehru Memorial Museum and Library, Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, New Delhi, Indian Council of Historical Research, New Delhi, the National Library of India, Calcutta, Madhya Pradesh Secretariat Record Room and Madhya Pradesh Secretariat Library, Bhopal and the Record Room, Maharashtra Secretariat, Nagpur. They were always helpful and courteous to me.

I also express my thanks to Dr. S.P. Awasthi, but for whose friendship I would have had to face all kinds of difficulties in the midst of my preoccupation with research.

In addition, I owe my sincere gratitude to my sister who has always been a constant source of inspiration in my life. I feel gratified at the understanding shown by my wife and our children Sangeeta, Anand and Upendra.

Finally, I have to thank Shri A.K. Mishra and Shri Mahesh Deusker for their kindness in helping me to get the thesis ready for submission.
