Acknowledgement

The author wishes to place on record his sincere gratitude and indebtedness to his supervisor Dr. Subhransu Sekhar Dash, Professor, Electrical and Electronics Engineering department, S.R.M.University, Chennai for his active supervision and guidance at every stage of this research work. Professor S. S. Dash has been a constant source of inspiration & motivation. But for his timely directions, this work might not have come out in the present form. With a debt of gratitude, which is too immense to express in words adequately, the author thanks his supervisor who has been very instrumental in enriching this thesis.

The author gratefully acknowledges to his former supervisor Dr. M. Ramalinga Raju, Professor, Head of Electrical Engineering Department, JNTU College of Engineering, Kakinada for his constant encouragement and valuable suggestions during the course of the work.

I would also like to express my gratitude to the Principal, Director Research and Development Cell, Dr. J. Amarnath chairman, Board of studies, all the members of Board of studies, all the Senior Professors in the Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering and Dr. N. Yadaiah Head of the Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering, J.N.T.U College of Engineering, Hyderabad and to the authorities of J.N.T. University Hyderabad for giving me permission to do the research work.
I record my sincere thanks to all my friends and relatives for their valuable suggestions and encouragement during the course of completing my thesis.

My family has always been my source for inspiration. I am grateful to my father, mother, sister and my wife Vijaya Lakshmi for encouraging and supporting me all the time. I owe a major part of accomplishing this task to the affection bestowed upon me by my daughters Sai Keerthana and Meghana.

The author wishes to thank all his colleagues and staff of BVC College of Engineering, Rajahmundry for their cooperation during the research work.

Special thanks to Dr. M. Anjan Kumar Principal and Sri Bonam Venkata Rajesh Chairman of BVC College of Engineering, Rajahmundry for their encouragement and help during the research work.

Finally, the author acknowledges all those who have helped him directly or indirectly during the course of the program.
