References

149. World Heart Federation (2010) Stroke incidence and mortality rates found to be higher in developing than in developed countries for first time. New Data the World Congress of Cardiology.
