ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I, Mrs. Srilatha Tushar Palekar, the undersigned express my sincere, gratitude to following persons who have helped me in completing the thesis.

I am thankful to my guide Dr. D. D. Balsaraf, who has been my mentor, support and a guiding light during the journey of the research. He has used his vast experience and knowledge in the field of Management to guide me in the process of my Ph. D. research. His invaluable time and patience during my research work has culminated in my completing the thesis.

I am also thankful to Dr. Anil Keskar, Advisor (Management Studies), Dr. D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, Dr. K. K. Veluri, Director & Dr. Kunal Bhattacharya, Professor, Global Business School & Research Centre for their mentoring and broadening my knowledge. Their contribution in understanding the technicalities involved in the thesis was of tremendous help to me in formulating this thesis.

I immensely thank Principal Dr. Snehal Agnihotri and Dr. Ranjit Patil, Vice Principal, of Dr. D.Y. Patil College of Arts, Commerce and Science, Pune for permitting and allowing me for pursuing my Doctoral programme.

I would also like to express my gratitude to the various NGO officials, who supported me in this study by giving their valuable time to answer all the queries and provide me with relevant information about the operations of the scheme as well as their frank opinions and suggestions. It will be an injustice if I forget to thank all women beneficiaries of NGOs who patiently listened to the long list of questions. Their interest and support to the study made it a worthwhile experience for me.
My sincere thanks to Mr. Digambar Inamdar, a Statistician and former Asst. Registrar of Pravara Institute of Medical Sciences (D.U.), Loni Bk. Dist. Ahmednagar, for his hard efforts of teaching statistical analysis through MS Excel and his overall guidance in sampling selection, Research Methodology and overall presentation part of this thesis.

I am indebted to my husband Dr. Tushar Palekar and my daughters Chaitanya and Ananya for managing our ‘Home Ministry’ during this research period patiently so as to complete this hard task.
