ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The work of this thesis has been done under the able guidance of Dr. J. I. Laliwala. His bold and optimistic approach as regards solving economic problems had great impact on me. The success of this original work has been made possible due to Prof. Laliwala's constant inspiring guidance and encouragement. I consider it to be a great privilege to have worked under him and I am deeply indebted to him for all the help and guidance that he has given to me.

I am much thankful to Prof. V.B. Bhardawraj Head of the Department of Economics, School of Social Sciences, Gujarat University, for his co-operation.

I, here, wish to express my indebtedness and thanks to my respected teachers of the Post-Graduate Department of Economics, Nagpur University, Nagpur.

Mere words will be insufficient and insincere in expressing my gratitude and heartiest thanks to my brother Moayad Khataibeh, who had given me a moral support and made my stay in this city of Ahmedabad pleasant and cherishable in memory.

I am grateful to the authorities of the Central Bank of Jordan for providing me with the valuable literature on the Economy of Jordan, I also thank Mr P.S. Shah & Ms. Jayshree of the computer section of the physical research laboratory for arranging to get my computer work done excellently.
