The researcher takes an opportunity to express his sense of gratitude to all who helped him in his work. First he wishes to acknowledge his indebtedness to his guide, Dr. Sarla Achuthan, Director, B.K. School of Business Management, Gujarat University, Ahmedabad for the able guidance and valuable suggestions. She has taken keen interest in going through this work, most critically.

The researcher is also grateful to Prof. Jignasu Yagnik, EDI, Ahmedabad for enlightening him on certain problems. The researcher is also grateful to Prof. D.M. Pestonjee, Dean, Faculty of Applied Management, CEPT University, Ahmedabad for constant encouragement.

The Librarians of Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad and British Library, Ahmedabad have been of immense help. It is virtually impossible for the researcher to express his most sincere thanks to all those who have been of help to him.

Gratitude is also due to all the authors and publishers of books and journals from whose publications excerpts and photographs have been drawn, for academic purpose.
