ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am extremely beholden to my respected teacher Prof. V.L. Mote for kindly agreeing to be my guide and also for helping me in the selection of the topic for my research. But for his keen encouragement and enthusiastic support, this work would not have been possible. Prof. Mote had bestowed a great deal of his valuable time for giving me useful suggestions and guidance. Mere words cannot convey the profound sense of gratitude I feel for his kindness and understanding support. May his knowledge and selfless enthusiasm inspire many more students like me in the years to come.

In the preparation of this thesis, I have received invaluable help and guidance from Prof. T. Madhavan of the Institute. He has always been willing to sort out my difficulties and further enlighten me on the subject. I am greatly indebted to him for his help and assistance.

I am thankful to Prof. D.D. Trivedi, Director, Search Consultants Pvt. Ltd., Ahmedabad for providing me financial assistance to meet some of the expenses in connection with my research. I am also grateful to Messrs. Clarion Advertising Services, Bombay for providing me with the required data.

I am grateful to my superiors, Professors M. Raghavachari, Nitin R. Patel, Amar H. Kalro, Jahar Saha and K.V. Ramani at the Institute, for their constant encouragement and understanding. Prof. Meenakshi Malya, though no longer with the Institute, had always been a source of inspiration to me.

My grateful thanks are due to Mr. Anil Srivastava and Mr. Rakesh Pandya of the System Dynamics, Ahmedabad for helping me develop the software.

I also thank Prof. Mohan Kaul, Chairman of the Institute's Computer Centre and his staff for permitting me to use the computer facilities.

Mr. P. Rajagopalan (Sr.) has provided the typing assistance for this thesis and I am thankful to him for the good work done by him.

I also take this opportunity to thank my friends and colleagues for their constant encouragement.

At this juncture I look back with gratitude to my parents and my elder brother without whose affection and keen enthusiasm in my studies it would not have been possible for me to come up to the present level of my academic life. I am sure the person who missed me most (of course always wondering what keeps 'amma' so busy even forgetting me) is my three year old son Santosh.

Last but not the least, I express my deep indebtedness to the Institute for providing a congenial atmosphere for the academic pursuits to its staff.
