The Indian Council of Social Science Research has been kind enough to provide finance for partly meeting the computer expenses.

My visit to Yale University has been made possible by a Ford Foundation grant to the National Institute of Public Finance and Policy.

The Economic Growth Centre at Yale University met the bulk of my computer and other secretarial expenses.

I am grateful to all these institutions.

I also wish to express my thanks to Miss Sharon Della Camera who rendered some typing help and secretarial assistance, and to Miss Cathy Haasman who helped in arranging and editing of the draft.

Finally, my thanks are due to Mrs Bhramara Jana, my wife, for her patience and encouragement.
