I am deeply grateful to my guide Prof. H.P. Bhatt, Professor and Head, Department of Economics and Director, University School of Social Sciences for guiding me in my present research work. He not only encouraged me to do research in this area but also saw to it that it is completed within reasonable time limit. His insistence on strict standards of quality have put positive pressures upon me to do my work to the best of my ability. Therefore, I owe a lot to him to submit my thesis in the present form. However, the limitations in whatever form as they are in thesis are my own.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not express my sincere thanks to my colleague and friend Shri V.P. Bharadwaj who has made himself available for discussion and consultation right from the beginning to the end of my work. I am also thankful to Dr. B.P. Desai (Associate Professor, Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad), Dr. R. Redhakrishna (Professor, Sardar Patel Institute of Economic and Social Research) and Shri H.J. Patel (Deputy Director of Research, Gujarat Agricultural University) for making valuable suggestions and comments on various parts of my work. I take an opportunity to thank my other colleagues especially Dr. S.S. Jena, Dr. C.H. Thaker and Dr. V.K. Chouda who have shown concern and encouragement to complete my work.

My sincere thanks are due to Shri Dipin Mehta, Shri Ajay Patel and (Mrs) Sukumari Murthy for making their services available as programmers in the processing of my data on computer. I am also thankful to Shri D.S. Parmar who helped me in getting my thesis typed in a short period.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS
Lastly, I thank my wife and kids who have not only helped me by making me free from domestic responsibilities but also have taken active interest in the completion of my work.
