ACKNOWLEDGMENT

My deep sense of gratitude to Dr. K.G. Desai, Director, University - School of Psychology, Philosophy, and Education, Gujarat University, Ahmedabad, for the sustained guidance and constant encouragement given throughout the endeavour.

My special thanks are due to the Heads/Teachers/Students of Secondary Schools of Karnataka, for their kind co-operation in the collection of research data required for my thesis work.

My special thanks are also due to the Principal, SREE SIDDAGANGA COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, Tumkur (Karnataka), for the co-operation and encouragement given throughout the endeavour.

I am most indebted to the Management, Sree Siddaganga Educational Institutions, Siddaganga Mutt, Tumkur, for the constant encouragement and financial assistance given throughout the endeavour.

I am indebted to UGC and Gujarat University authorities for having given a chance to complete this work under F.I. Programme.

TUMKUR
April, 1982. R.C. PUTTABUDDI