ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It would not have been possible to write this doctoral thesis without the help and support of the kind people around me, to only some of whom it is possible to give particular mention here:

I owe my sincere thanks to the Secretary and Correspondent, National College, Shri. K. Raghunathan and Principal of the College Dr. K. Anbarasu, for having given me the opportunity to do my doctoral research in the esteemed institution.

I would like to express my sincerest gratitude to my Guide Dr. D. Sivasubramanian, Retd. Reader & Head, Post Graduate and Research Department of Commerce, National College, Trichy, without whose guidance and persistent help this thesis would not have been possible. I am highly indebted and ever grateful to him.

My sincere thanks are also due to the Doctoral Committee member, Dr. S. Rammath, Reader in Commerce, National College, Tiruchirappalli for his valuable ideas, suggestions, and feedback.

My heartfelt thanks are due to my beloved Principal, Dr. K. Meena, and Secretary, Shri. S. Kunjithapatham, Shrimathi Indira Gandhi College,
Trichy, for granting permission and providing facilities to carry out the research work.

My gratitude is also due to all the bank officials who were kind enough and provided me with necessary data for executing the research work.

I would like to thank all my family members, for their personal support and great patience at all times.

I am thankful to all my colleagues for their active support and help.

Last, but by no means least, I dedicate all glory and gratitude to the Almighty showering upon his blessings in accomplishing the thesis.
