ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am deeply indebted to my Research Guide

Dr. S.G. Adhvaryu, Chief Research Officer, The Gujarat Cancer and Research Institute, for his valuable guidance, constant supervision, ever inspiring suggestions and continuous encouragement in accomplishing this monograph.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. D.D. Patel, Director, Dr. T.B. Patel and Dr. N.L. Patel, Ex-Directors, Dr. P.M. Shah, Deputy Director and Dr. D.B. Balar, Head, Department of Cancer Biology, The Gujarat Cancer and Research Institute for granting the permission and providing me the necessary facilities for carrying out the present work.

I express my heartfelt gratitude in acknowledging Dr. P.S. Patel, Head, Biochemistry Research Division for his critical suggestions, valuable help and active participation during the study.

I am sincerely thankful to Dr. A.H. Trivedi, Junior Scientific Officer, Cell Biology Division for the valuable suggestions and help extended during the work.

I am also thankful to my colleagues, Dr. (Mrs.) Urwashi Joshi, Ms. Gira Rawal, Mr. Rakesh Rawal, Ms. Mintoo Patel, Ms. Raktima Bhattacharya and Ms. Ami Bhatt, who have helped me during various stages of the work.

I wish to acknowledge all the staff members of Department of Surgical Oncology and Department of Medical Oncology and Dr. P.K. Dayal, Government Dental College and Hospital, Ahmedabad for their help and co-operation rendered during the present work.

I sincerely thank all the subjects who readily agreed to participate in this research project.

The help of Mr. Sourabhan, as well as Ms. Barbara in neatly typing the thesis, was very instrumental.

Last but not least, is the moral support of my beloved mother, husband Yogesh, daughter Vedanti and all my family members, whose love, encouragement and care made the present work pleasant and tenable.
