CONTENTS

1. INTRODUCTION 2

1.1 Food Gap 2
1.2 Attempts made to bridge the Food Gap - Therotical Bases 3
1.3 Food Aid- the P.L. 48o way-its impact 4
1.4 The Indian situation-a Mini World situation:is the same Solution Possible? 6
1.5 Target Group -its assets and liabilities 9
1.6 Factors affecting it-ability to earn and liabilities 10
1.7 The inequality 15
1.8 Strategies to make the inequality to an equality- the solution 15
1.9 Organisation of the thesis 16
1.10 Objectives and Methodology of the Study. 19

2. Food for Development 21

2.1 Another way to look at the food-gap situation 21
2.2 Development-a definition 21
2.3 Income-how it is spent 22
2.4 'Entitlement 'and 'Acquirement' problem 28
2.5 The 'spill-over' effect 30
2.6 Food for development 39
2.7 Consumption and demand in other sectors. 39

3.1 Growth of Agricultural and Food Production in India 44
   3.1.1 Pre-Independence Era 44
   3.1.2 Post-Independence period
      3.1.2.1. Period between 1950-51 to 1981-82 44
      3.1.2.2. The sixth Plan Period
      3.1.2.3. The Seventh Plan Period.
3.2 Agricultural Regional Development 56
3.3 Agricultural use of Various Inputs 60
   3.3.1 Seeds 62
   3.3.2 Fertilizers 62
3.3.3 Land Use 65
3.3.4 Cropping Pattern 67
3.3.5 Irrigation 70
3.4 Productivity 72
3.5 The Agricultural Policy 75
3.6 Price Policy 76
3.7 Future Trends 76
3.8 Buffer Stock-Theory and practice 82
   3.8.1 A Historical view 82
   3.8.2 Buffer stock-what surplus 86

4. Will Demand Outstrip Availability? 92
   4.1 An Assessment of the Demand 92
   4.2 Measurement of Poverty 92
   4.3 Estimates of Poverty 93
      4.3.1 For the period upto 1977-78 93
      4.3.2 For the period 1977-78 onwards 97
   4.4 Nutrition Level 100
   4.5 Composition of Target Group 111
   4.6 Measurement of Demand 112
      4.6.1 Method-I 112
         4.6.1.1 Population Trends 115
         4.6.1.2 Poverty Ratios 116
      4.6.2 Method-II 121
   4.7 A Comparison of the Demand and Availability 125

5. Primary Method used for Reaching Food to the poor-public Distribution system 130
   5.1 Existing Strategies to Reach Food to the Poor 130
   5.2 Public Distribution System 130
   5.3 Evolution 131
   5.4 Magnitude of Operation 135
   5.5 Procurement 136
      5.5.1 Methods 136
      5.5.2 Quantum 137
5.6 Storage and Movement of Foodgrains 138
5.7 Distribution
5.7.1 Cost of Public Distribution 144
5.7.1.1 Support on issue prices 144
5.7.1.2 Price to be paid by the consumer 150
5.7.1.3 Subsidy 151
5.7.1.4 Cost of Buffer stock 151
5.7.2 Fair Price Shops 153
5.7.2.1 Coverage 155
5.7.2.2 Off-take 159
5.7.3 Economy of Fair Price Shops 167
5.7.3.1 A case study of a Fair Price Shop 169
5.8 Critical Analysis of the System 173

6. Other Method Tried-Overall Development, Income Raising and Direct Feeding. 178
6.1 Reaching the Poor 178
6.2 The various schemes Enumerated 178
6.3 Community Oriented Programmes 181
6.3.1 Community Development Programme 181
6.3.2 The Package Programmes 182
6.3.3 Small Farmers Development Agency (SFDA) and Marginal Farmers and Agricultural Labour’s Agency (MFAL) 183
6.4 Area Development Programmes 185
6.4.1 Drought Prone Area Programme (DPAP) 185
6.4.2 Desert Development Program 187
6.4.3 Hill Area Development Programme 188
6.4.4 Command Area Development Programme 189
6.5 Programme Directed Towards Sections of the Society. 189
6.5.1 Programme for upliftment of the Backwards/ Schedule Castes and Tribes. 189
6.5.2 Socio Economic Programmes for women & Children. 192
6.6 Employment Oriented Schemes. 199
6.6.1 Rural Works Programme 200
6.6.2 Crash Scheme for Rural Employment 202
6.6.3 Pilot Intensive Rural Employment Project (PIREP) 202
6.6.4 Employment Guarantee Schemes (EGS) 204
6.6.5 Food for Works Programmes. 204
6.6.6 National Rural Employment Programme (NREP) 205
6.6.6.1 A Case Study of a NREP programme. 209
6.6.7 Rural Landless Employment Guarantee Programme (RLEG) 211
6.7 Omnibus Programmes
   6.7.1 Minimum Needs Programmes 213
   6.7.2 Antyodaya Programmes 216
   6.7.3 Integrated Rural Development Programmes 217
6.8 A General Critique of All Programmes. 221

7. Findings and Recommendation: Additional Strategies/Implementation 223

7.1 A Resume 223
7.2 The Target Groups 226
7.3 Target Group I (Able bodied persons Aged 15-59 yrs) 227
   7.3.1 Size of the Group 227
   7.3.2 SWOT Analysis of this Group 231
   7.3.3 Strategy 233
7.4 Target Group II (Children aged 0-14) 237
   7.4.1 Size of the Group 237
   7.4.2 Strategies 239
7.5 Target Group III (Pregnant and Lactating Mothers) 243
   7.5.1 Size 243
   7.5.2 Strategies 243
7.6 Implementation 244
   7.6.1 Profile of the Target 246
   7.6.2 Preparation of the prescription 247
   7.6.3 Administration of the Prescription 247
      7.6.3.1 Entitlement Augmentation Trust (EAT) 249
      7.6.3.2 Lay-out, Links and Organization of on EAT 250
      7.6.3.3 Network of EAT: Running and Viability 253