Contents

Declaration
Certificate
Preface
Acknowledgement

CHAPTER-I : INTRODUCTION 1-22
1.0. Background 1
1.1. Privacy defined 4
1.2. Personal privacy 5
1.3. Informational privacy 7
1.4. Organisational privacy 7
1.5. Spiritual and intellectual privacy 8
   1.5.1 Spiritual privacy 8
   1.5.2 Intellectual privacy 9
1.6. Recent definitions 11
1.7. Technology Impact 12
1.8. Privacy law in other countries 15
1.9. Objectives of the study 19
1.10 Social significance of the study 20
References 20

CHAPTER-II : REVIEW OF LITERATURE 23-48
2.0. Evolution of Privacy 23
2.1. Dimensions of privacy 24
2.2. Types of violation 25
2.3. Broadcast guidelines 27
2.4. The debate 32
2.5. The Indian context 35
2.6. Public sphere 37
2.7. The Big Brother concept 41
References 45
CHAPTER-III : THEORETICAL FRAMEWORK OF THE STUDY 49-58
3.0. The Hutchins Commission 49
3.1. Impact of Hutchins’s Report 50
3.2. Regulating media 51
3.3. Privacy from a sociological perspective 53
3.4. Indian Constitution and privacy 54
3.5. Privacy as a human right 55
3.6. Social responsibility 56
References 57

CHAPTER-IV: RESEARCH METHODOLOGY OF THE STUDY 59-64
4.0. Introduction 59
4.1. Research premise 59
4.2. Case study method 60
4.3. Questionnaire method 60
4.4. Statistical techniques used 61
4.5. Limitations of the study 62
References 64

CHAPTER-V: PRIVACY ISSUES IN THE CYBER WORLD 65-85
5.0. Introduction 65
5.1. Trends in privacy invasion 68
5.2. Privacy invasion in the cyber world 68
5.3. Control of privacy intrusion in the cyber world 71
5.4. Technology as a facilitator 74
5.5. The Indian scenario 77
5.6. Report of Parliamentary Standing Committee on Information Technology 81
5.7. The road ahead 82
References 83
CHAPTER VI: CASE STUDY

WESTERN CASES:

6.1. Edward Snowden the whistle-blower who rocked the United States -- the David who took on the Goliath
  6.1.1. The expose
  6.1.2. Reaction of US Congress
  6.1.3. The fallout of the Snowden episode
  6.1.4. India on the footsteps of US snooping
  6.1.5. Report of Justice A.P. Shah Committee

6.2. Princess Diana and the Press freedom
  6.2.1. Prelude to Diana’s death

6.3. Christine Keeler and John Profumo episode

6.4. The Monica Lewinsky scandal

6.5. Naomi Campbell vs. Mirror Group Newspapers Ltd.
  6.5.1. The verdict

  EWCA CIV 1776
  6.6.1. Material facts
  6.6.2. The judgement

6.7. Invasion of privacy of Prince William and Kate Middleton
  by Closer Magazine
  6.7.1. The verdict

INDIAN CASES:

6.8 Suresh Ram Vs Maneka Gandhi in the Surya newspaper expose.

6.9 Indian Premiere League controversy involving Sunanda Pushkar

6.10 Abhishek Manu Singhvi CD scandal
  6.10.1. Reactions to sting operation

6.11. Sunanda Pushkar, a victim of social media
  6.11.1. Social Networking - a curse or blessing

6.12. J.B. Patnaik Case and Illustrated Weekly
6.13. The Aarushi Talwar murder case 119
6.14. The Operation West End (Tehelka expose) 121
   6.14.1. The expose 121
   6.14.2. Public reaction 122
6.15. The Nira Radia tapes controversy 124
   6.15.1. The cover up 125
   6.15.2. The debate 125
6.16. Privacy violations by TV9 in “Gay culture rampant in Hyderabad”. 126
6.17. Dilshad Sheikh and Nawaz Sharif 129
6.18. Scandal and expose involving Goa Legislative Assembly Speaker Dayanand Ganesh Narvekar 131
6.19. Kharak Singh vs. The State of UP and others 132
   6.19.1. Background 132
   6.19.2. Judgement 134
6.20. Rajagopal vs. State of Tamil Nadu 135
   6.20.1. Material facts 135
   6.20.2. The court verdict 136

References 138-143

CHAPTER-VII: DATA ANALYSIS, INTERPRETATION AND FINDINGS 144-174
7.0. Profile of respondents 144
7.1. Perception of privacy and distribution of respondents 146
7.2. Spending time alone and distribution of respondents 146
7.3. Spending some time with family in private 147
7.4. Reaction if someone intrudes into privacy 148
7.5. Acceptance of privacy intrusion 148
7.6. Opinion on social networking sites seeking personal information 150
7.7. Opinion on posting of personal information on social networking sites that may be seen by others 151
7.8. Awareness of the data usage policy of social networking sites such as Face book 152
7.9. Satisfaction regarding the privacy policy of social networking sites 153
7.10. Suggestions on measures to be taken when personal privacy is invaded
7.11. Solutions against cyber-crimes
7.12. Awareness of various scandals in India
7.13. Opinion on sting operations by the media
7.14. Opinion on whether sting operations are unethical
7.15. Right to privacy of politicians and public servants
7.16. Opinion on media focus on the private lives of celebrities
7.17. Opinion on the need for a separate privacy law in India
7.18. Preference of mechanism to prevent media persons from invading privacy of the people
7.19. Perception of media invasion of privacy in India
7.20. Perception of privacy in the Indian context
7.21. Application of chi-square test for hypotheses
7.22. Major findings of the data analysis

CHAPTER-VIII: SUGGESTIONS AND CONCLUSION 175-182
8.0. Introduction 175
8.1. Technology and Privacy 177
8.2. Public Life and Privacy 177
8.3. Privacy and Celebrities 178
8.4. Privacy and Social Responsibility of the Media 179
8.5. Suggestion and Recommendation on Privacy protection in India 180
8.6. Conclusion 181

BIBLIOGRAPHY 183-193

APPENDICES