BIBLIOGRAPHY

❖ A study of SSI in Baroda and Kheda districts of Gujarat by Hashim et.al. (1985).

Benjamin: Role of Group Action in the Industrialisation of Rural Area, Praeger Publisher, New York, Washington, 1971

Caracteristics and contribution of SMEs by Shri S.K.Tuteja (Januaray – March 2002).

Dhar and Lydall, Hajra, Sandesara (1966 and 1969) and Mehta :The Role of Small Scale Enterprises in Indian Economic Development (Bombay: Asia Publishing House, 1961)

Dhrupad Mathur, “Technical and Entrepreneurial Research Information System An applied e-model for sustainable

Habib: Small scale units as a Means of Creating Employment Opportunities, The Journal of Commerce, Department of Commerce, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh 1973-73

How can Indian SSEs meet the challenges of globalization by Dr.S.K.Jain (April – September 2001)

In 1965, the monopolies inquiry commission had stated that small business concerns are a good training ground for business talent and managerial skill.

Industrial Sickness Small Scale Sector by Shaikh Muzaffar – Vice principal and Ahmad Umar Khan reader and head department of business laws, both are from Poona College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Pune 411 001 published in Southern Economist July1, 2001

It was observed that from the total number of units covered under the sample survey, nearly 83 percent units in Baroda and 68 percent units in Kheda were started by their present owner.

- Kalyan Singh (2001) UP Chief Minister said in a public speech as reported in the Times of India-12 May 2001.
- Khanka S.S. (2005), Entrepreneurial Development, S. Chand and Company Ltd., Ram Nagar, New Delhi- 110055.
- Leo Paul Dana, “The Education and Training of Entrepreneurs in Asia”,

Marketing Problems of Small scale units in Dakshina Kannada by A.Raghuvarma – reader in commerce, Mangalore University, Mangalagangothri and N.Hala Naik – Department of Commerce, MGM college Udupi, published in southern economist March 1 - 2004

Mayur, K., Small Business as a Social Institutions, Social Research 1971

Medhora, P.B., Entrepreneurship in India, Political Science Quarterly Vol. XXX No.4  1965

Panel: Research of the Research Panel on ‘Accommodation of small scale industries in Bombay City’ (Greater Bombay), 1965.

Pradip Sinha& Sadhu Ramakrishna, “when the going gets tough…” Global CEO, October 2005.

Prime Minister (Atal Bihari Vajpayee) address at the Asian summit on Youth Entrepreneurship &Employment, Yojana, December 2003.

Rajkumar G and Shatarupa Chaki, “In the spirit of leadership”, Human Capital, October 2003.

Ramakrishna, K.T., Finances for small scale industry in India, Asia Publishing House Bombay 1962.

Rao (2001), V.S.P.D. Nagaya, Small Industry Development in India; Role of Infrastructure in the Industrialisation.

Reeti Kulshrestha, “the DNA of Leadership”, training and management April 2003.

Remarks by George Deikun, USAID/India Mission Director ASSOCHAM’s 2nd Annual Commodities Conference, June 9, 2006.

Small scale Industries in India – AN Engine of Growth-published by the office of DC (SSI) Ministry of SSI, Government of India, and New Delhi (August 2002).

Small scale manufacturing industries in India by Sukanta Kumar Sahoo belongs to small industries service institute, Cuttack published in Economic Journal Vol. 51 No. 1, 2003-04

SMEs and Industrial Clusters – Lessons for India from Italian Experience by Janina Gomes published in Economic and Political Weekly December 8, 2001.

Staley and moore, modern small industries for developing countries, Mcgraw Hill, Tokyo, 1965.

Staly Productive Development of Small Industry Productivity Vol. 3 No.5 & 6, 1962.

Support to local industry was the main strength of ‘Swadeshi Movement’ of Mahatama Gandhi.

The Ford Foundation in 1953.

The recent environmental changes and impact on small scale industrial sector by S.V. Raju associate professor, Department of Commerce and Business Administration, Nagarajuna University, Nagarjuna Nagar – 522 510 published at Southern Economist April 1st & 15th 2001.

The SSI units set up near the centers of raw materials availability and/or developed markets often enjoy locational advantages and therefore, save the transport cost considerably.

The various agencies set up by the government and the financial institution have been rendered consultancy services mainly technical consultancy to the small scale industry. Indian Small Scale Industries in Emerging International Scenario by C.S. Prasad.

Verma, J.D. Ancillary Industries – Industrial Development of India Policy and Problems.

Vuasulu, Vinod, Technology & Change in Underdeveloped Societies, Economic & Political Weekly August.

