SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY

Primary Sources

Documents and White Papers

Asian Recorder (New Delhi).

Department of State Bulletin (USA).

Foreign Affairs Bulletin (Bangkok).

Kessing's Record of World Events (London).

Thailand Foreign Affairs Newsletter (Bangkok).

The World Book Encyclopedia (USA).

Secondary Sources

A. Books

Ma, Makata, Consequences of the Vietnam War on Thai Foreign Policy, (Thesis) California State University, 1980.

Pluvier, Jan., Southeast Asia from Colonialism to Independence, (Kuala Lumpur: Oxford University Press, 1974).

Viraphol, Sarasin, Directions in Thai Foreign Policy (New Delhi: Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, Jawahar Lal Nehru University, 1976).

Werfel, David and Burton, Bruce, Southeast Asia in the New World Order; (USA : St Martin’s Press, Inc. 1996)

B. Articles

Diamond, Larry, "Why the US must Remain engaged" Orbis, Vol 40, No.3 (Summer 1996).

Gregg, Donald P. "The Case for Continued U.S engagement", Orbis, Vol 41 No.3 (Summer 1997).

C. Periodicals

Adelphi Papers (London)

American Journal of Political Science (Columbia, Texas)

American Politics Quarterly (London, New Delhi)

Asian Survey (Berkeley)

China Report (New Delhi)

Eastern Economist (New Delhi)
Foreign Affairs (New York)
Foreign Affairs Report (New Delhi)
International Affairs (London)
International Affairs (London)
International Organization (Boston)
International Politics (New Delhi)
International Studies (New Delhi)
Orbis (Philadelphia)
Pacific Affairs (Vancouver)
Political Science Quarterly (New York)
Strategic Digest (New Delhi)
Strategic Analysis (New Delhi)
The World Today (London)
World Affairs (New Delhi)

D. Magazines and Newspapers
Bankok Post (Bangkok, Daily)
Bankok World (Bangkok, Daily)
Far Eastern Economic Review (Hongkong; Weekly)
Frontline (Madras, twice a month)

Hindustan Times (New Delhi, Daily)

Newsweeks (New York, Weekly).

The Investor (Bangkok, Monthly)

The Nation (Bangkok, Daily)

The Times of India (New Delhi, Daily)

Times (New York, Weekly)