ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I had the occasion of meeting, interacting and consulting a number of scholars both in India and Thailand while pursuing research. Most of all my supervisor and guide Professor B. Rahamathulla deserves a great debt of gratitudes for his excellent guidance and encouragement. During the long period of research, which occasionally resulted in depression and boring. But my supervisor inspired, stimulated and comforted me by facilitating with the wealth of information, data, source materials needed for writing the thesis in time.

Professor M.A. Kishore, Chairman Department of Political Science, Professor T.A. Nizami, Professor Iqbal Khanam, Dr. Mohammad Abid and Dr. Arif Hameed and other faculty equally deserve my indebtedness for help and cooperation. Often their assistance became handy to co-up the huge task of collecting source materials.
I would like to express my sincere thanks to the staff of Maulana Azad Library, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, Jawaharlal Nehru University Library, New Delhi, Indian Council of World Affairs, New Delhi, American Center, New Delhi, Thammasat University Library, Chulalongkorn University Library, Ramkhamhang University Library, American Centre, Thailand National Library, Library and Information Centre, Development Document Center, all from Bangkok, Thailand and my friends Abdul Roning Suetair, Chatchawan Niyomwittayanont and Husen Hmadman for assisting and providing materials.

I gratefully acknowledge the financial assistance and moral support given by my father Mr. Zakaria Kayem, my mother Ms Sofia Kayem, my brothers Ahmad, Shukri, Hassan Kayem and my sister Aminah Kayem. Without their love, affection and support, it would not have been possible on my part to stay in India for a such a long period to do research study. Eventually, my wife Zaiton deserves my appreciation for her endurance and patience in my long period of absence and for her moral support through letters, which became a constant source of joy, while I was pre-occupied with the thesis writing. I wish to record my sincere thanks to Mr. Kafeel A. Khan and brother Mr. Jameel A. Khan for having typed the manuscript in time.

Place : Aligarh

ABDULROMAN KAYEM

Dated : 08.03.2000