ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

An achievement of this nature needs co-operation and support from many for successful completion. It is my privilege to express my gratitude and ever remain deeply indebted to my Guide and mentor Dr. Mahesha M., M.A., Ph.D., Associate Professor in Department of Studies in Economics & Co-operation, University of Mysore, Mysore, whose suggestions, encouragement and scholarly guidance helped me to complete this research work. Moreover he not only provided an ideal atmosphere needed for any research to brighten his/her research carrier, but also he patiently and cheerfully goaded, prodded, pushed and wheedled me to complete on time.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to all my teachers and faculty members of Department of Studies in Economics and Co-operation, Manasagangothri, Mysore, where I have spent the best part of my academic life.

Most importantly, I am thankful to my parents, Smt. Yashodamma M.C., Manche Gowda K.H, and Mallikarjune Gowda M.C., who brought me up with virtuous culture and made me a worshipper of knowledge. And, in fact, they are my continuous source of inspiration and motivation.

This thesis would not have been written without the support, encouragement I received from my husband, Kumara Swamy T.V. he has been a true partner every step of the way. Finally I thank my father in law Venkatappa T.N. and my lovely son Dheemanth Kumar for their constant support and forbearance during the course of this research work.

Finally, I thank all those who have helped me directly or indirectly in making this thesis a reality.

Ramya .M