ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At this important half of my academic career, I am deeply beholden to my esteemed and reverend supervisor Dr. Beer Singh, Prof. and Head, department of Psychology, Institute of Advanced Studies, C.C.S. University Campus, Meerut, for the meticulous scholarly, guidance and munificent help in all matters, directly or indirectly related to my research work. He is always honorable to me for his support and precious time given to me. He helped me out of the way. I admit the fact that he has “Leave no stone unturned” in completing this work. Without his patronage and inspiration this research work could never have been completed. He helped me with “heart and soul”, when feeling are intense, words are few. To him, I have a sense of mute worship and adoration and will remain forever.

I am especially grateful to respected Madam Mrs. Suman Kalyan W/o my Supervisor for providing me family environment. I will never forget her cooperation and support during in completing this work.

I extend my lovely feeling to Dear Shresth (Pinky) S/o my supervisor for his humorous acting and discussion.

Some special words to my lovely wife Dr. Neeta Chandra, she has helped me very much regarding this research work without her cooperation, this work would not have been completed in time. She inspired me to face difficult time, and to have patience during completion of this work.
My father Shri Dan Chand and Mother Smt. Krishna Devi, unregardful of the difficulties, they have faced by sparing all that they can for my education and especially, in doing this research work, will be the happiest persons to see this work of mine. Their affection, sacrifice, moral support and encouragement related to this research work will be notable and memorable for me forever.

I am also thankful to my Father-in-law Shri Khyali Ram and Mother-in-law Smt. Rambati for encouragement, motivation and moral support in completing this work.

Also, I am thankful to my younger brother Vinod for providing me help, in completing this piece of research work.

I express my lovely feeling to my brother-in-law, Pavan, Dushyant and Ravi for prayer to God for me to complete this work.

I extend my hearty feelings to my dear Sister-in-law Usha (Gudia) for motivation and encouragement in completing this research.
