ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am grateful to thee, Almighty God for enabling me to complete my thesis by your powerful knowledge. How great are your actions Lord! It is not being done either by my strength or by my knowledge, but by Thy immense Grace only. I give honor and glory to my God.

I am highly indebted to the Vice Chancellor, Sri Ramachandra University, Porur, Chennai, for permitting me to pursue the Doctor of Philosophy in Nursing. I am also obliged to the Dean of Faculties, Sri Ramachandra University, Porur, Chennai, for an opportunity extended to me to take up the study.

My cordial appreciation and revere to my Guide, Mentor Dr. (Mrs) K. Lalitha, Professor, H.O.D, Department of Nursing, and NIMHANS Bengaluru Karnataka, whose help, inspiring suggestions and encouragement helped me at all the times during this course. Her extensive knowledge and her intellectual way of thinking have been of great value for me. Her understanding, unvarying support, encouragement and personal guidance have provided an excellent basis for the present thesis.

It gives me great pleasure and respect to thank my Co-guide Dr. Georgi Abraham, Professor, Department Of Medicine, Madras Medical Mission, Mogappair, Chennai, for his guidance, encouragement and valuable suggestions throughout the study gave me inspiration to continue and accomplish this study.

I immensely owe my gratitude and thanks to Dr. B. Srinivasan, Professor, Department Of Psychiatry, Chettinad Medical College and Hospital, Kelambakkam, Chennai, as an Advisory Committee Member for his detailed review and excellent advice, valuable guidance, inspiring suggestions, encouragement and continuous support throughout the period of my study.

---

I will give you thanks as long as I live. My soul will feast and be satisfied & I will sing glad songs of praise to you.

~Psalms 63:4-5
My immeasurable gratefulness to Dr. B.W. C. Sathyasekaran professor in department of community medicine, Sri. Ramachandra University, - Porur, Chennai, for his excellent knowledge explosion in my thesis work.

My heartfelt thanks to Prof P.V. Ramachandran Chairman Nursing Education and Dr. Prasanna Baby Principal of Sri Ramachandra College of Nursing - Porur, Chennai, for extending their support.

My tremendous thanks and appreciations to Mr. Subramaniyan, Ex-Registrar, Sri. Ramachandra University, without his instigation I would not have enrolled myself in this educational ladder of PhD scholar.

I have great honor to Dr. Vijayalaxmi Dhanasekaran, COE, Sri Ramachandra University, her precise suggestion made me to select an apt research topic which is highly satisfied and truly helpful in my nature of nursing educational profession.

It’s my, due respect and thanks to Mr. N. Natarajan, Registrar, Sri Ramachandra University for his warm recognitions during my studentship.

It is my bounden duty to express my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Parthasarathy Professor in Psychiatric social work department NIMHANS- Bengaluru, for his intellectual contribution in my area of research work and timely support throughout my study.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the Registrar, RGUHS Bangalore and Secretary Karnataka nursing board for disseminating the needed statistical information related to my study on request in time.

I express my gratitude to all the experts who validated the tool and the structured the teaching module, and gave their valuable guidance and suggestions.

I shower my gratefulness to all the College of Nursing Principals and their managements those who gave me an opportunity and congenial atmosphere to collect data and gave me untiring help during my study.

I am grateful to all my nursing students and nursing tutors for giving willingness with good cooperation during my data collection. Without them I wouldn’t have been able to complete the study.
I warmly thank my Bio-Statisticians, Dr. Thennarasu, NIMHANS-Bengaluru and Dr. Porchellvan, Savitha Medical College - Chennai, for their extensive discussion around my work and remarkable explorations in statistical analysis of my data, which is vital in the study.

My in-depth pleasure in thanking, a genuine personality Dr. Esther Shirley Daniel, Senior Lecturer, School of Nursing, The University of West Indies, Trinidad for her tremendous scholarly guidance in organizing my thesis content and boosting my confidence level in this success. I thank for her timely and an unforgettable help forever.

I am extremely thankful to Mrs. L. Vidhya, M.A., M.Phil. (English) B.L, Lecturer in English, Sri Ramachandra University, for editing this manuscript efficiently.

I am immensely grateful to Mr. Dharshan, for supporting me in the initial part of the data analysis into a legible piece of work and my P.G students, Mr. Vinoth Basavaraj & Mr. Mahantes Karge, from East West CON, Bengaluru, for their untiring help during my data collection.

The event of acknowledgement would not be complete without the mention of my beloved kids, son V. Leo Melvine, daughter V. Kathrine Leona and husband Mr. Vijayakumar for their inspiration and moral support.

Finally I wish to place my sincere thanks to my sister V. Stella Mary & our family friend Mr. Gobu for their motivation and co-operation. Very sincere thanks to those who helped me directly and indirectly in this way of my edifying achievement.

Date: 27/04/2015

Victor Virginia Mary

Place: Bengaluru.