ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Thanks and reverence to the Almighty God who gave me an opportunity to carry out this work. Thanks are also due to Him for enabling several of His vicegerents to help me in the completion of this thesis.

The first and foremost among them is my guide and supervisor Dr. KV Pavithran, Professor at Mayyil Institute of Management studies and former head of the department of economics, Brennan college Thalasseri, whose constant efforts, encouragement, and support benefited me the most. He has been a continuous source of inspiration to me since I joined as a research scholar. I express my profound thanks to him.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. P Ibrahim, former professor, department of economics Pondicherry University; whose encouragement and support from the beginning to the end helped enormously to complete this work.

I extend my sincere thanks to Dr. Suresh Babu, Head of the department of economics and research centre Brennan college, Dr. M Pathmini and Prof. Savithri, former heads of the department for their sincere help from the beginning to the end of my research work. I also wish to express my thanks to other faculty members of the research centre, and staff members in the office for their valuable assistance and directions extended to me in different occasions.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Harikumar S, Head of the department of applied economics CUSAT, and Dr. M Gangadharan, Head of the department of applied economics at Thalasseri campus of Kannur University, for their advices in different occasions of the study.

Dr. Shariq Nisar, the spirit of Islamic financial activities in India, has always been a source of inspiration to me. Dr. Shaheed Ramzan from department of economics, govt. college Kodancheri was always a friend in need. Dr. ZA Ashraf, department of statistics at govt. arts and science college Calicut spent lot of time to help me in analysis stage of the work. I would like to express my sincere thanks to all.

Several dignitaries from India and outside including Dr. M.N. Siddiqi from USA, Dr. Nazim Ali of Harvard, Dr. Mohammed Obaidullah from IDB Jeddah, Saudi Arabia, Dr. M Rahmathullah and MH Khatkatay from Mumbai, Dr. MI Bagsiraj from Belgam, and Mr. Abdurakeeb from Chennai, provided valuable suggestions, comments and some materials. I remember their helps with heart felting gratitude.

Several Internet portals like HIFIP data bank of Harvard, IBF.Net, and microfinance.net, several newspapers and magazines helped me a lot in understanding the subject matters. In this respect special mention must be made to the web site of Islamic Research and Training Institute (IRTI) Jeddah.

My deep sense of gratitude is expressed to Dr. PK Aboobacker, Principal of my institution EMEA HSS Kondotty, for his valuable and earnest advises and assistance. I also remember with thanks the co operation of management committee, colleagues and other staff members of the institution.

My relatives, friends, and well-wishers were all quite helpful and supportive throughout my study. Mr. TK Hussein, secretary of INFACC sustainable development mission, Mr. Shoukath Ali from Al Jamiya Al Islamiya Santhapuram and Mr. KK Ali, CEO, Alternative Investment and Credits Ltd. Cochin, deserve special mention in this regard.

I acknowledge my sincere thanks to the informants, officials and other respondents of interest free institutions in Kerala who cooperated with me sincerely to provide reliable information for my research.

Also remember the support and cooperation given by my parents and other family members including beloved wife Murshida and children Musfira, Muzayyana and Ahmad Yaseen with utmost patience and tolerance during the time of work related to my study.

Once again my sincere thanks and appreciations to all the above mentioned and to all others whose names I could not accommodate. May the Almighty God help and guide them all in peace, security and prosperity.

Muhammed K

Palath, Calicut