ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude to Professor Mahmood S. Khan – Chairman, Department of Psychology, without whose able guidance, continuous moral support, understanding and faith in me, this work of mine would have never completed.

I also extend my thanks to Prof. Hamida Ahmad, Prof. Saiduzzafar, Prof. Akbar Hussain, Prof. Shamim A Ansari for their constant help and encouragement.

My sincere thanks to the participants of this study who shared with me their valuable time out of their busy schedules and cooperated me with patience by filling the long questionnaires – the key to this present study. I would also thank all the key personnel of various organizations – Ms Indrani Sanyal (Manager – HR, NIIT Technologies Ltd., New Delhi), Ms Mona Kaura (Executive HR, Birla Soft Technologies Ltd, New Delhi), Father A.R. Pinto (Director – Administration, Holy Family Hospital, New Delhi), Mr V.R. Gupta (Head – HR, Escorts Hospital, Faridabad), Ms Dean (Nursing Administrator, Escorts Heart and Research Institute, New Delhi), Ms Anshu (Manager – HR, Fortis Hospital, Noida), Lt. Col. C. N. Nair (Nursing Superintendent, Kailash Hospital and Research Institute, Noida) and Mrs Margaret D'Souza (Assistant Manager – HR, Voltas Limited, Mumbai) who granted me their kind permission to carry out my study upon their employees and helped me for collecting data. I am also thankful to my friends Biji George (Software Engineer, HCL Technologies, New Delhi), Manoj Mahto (Software Engineer, Birla Soft Technologies, New Delhi), Mrs Meenakshi Bahl (Secretary, Bharat Heavy Electricals Limited, New Delhi), Mrs Sarla (Secretary, Escorts Hospital and Research Institute, Faridabad) who also assisted me in data collection and follow ups.
I would like to thank my husband, Danish Jilani who across the miles have encouraged me to continue my work and been the link for the provision of necessary information, my sister Shazia Khan who helped me in data analysis, my mother Mrs Muzammil Fatima and my father Mr Shabih Ahmad Khan Sherwani for their endless prayers, who are also my constant source of inspiration and my family members who continuously provided me strength, love, encouragement and motivation. Last but not the least my 2½-year-old daughter Nuha for being patient with me during her wonder years when she needed me most. I wish to thank you all for partaking in the joy and sorrows in this long and difficult yet successful journey. I could not have completed this thesis without your encouragement, love and support.

Sheeba Khan