Acknowledgments

First of all, my sincere thanks and appreciation goes to my supervisor, Dr. Tabassum Rashid, for her vital contribution and guidance throughout this work. I shall always appreciate her for her unwavering critical and analytical support and advice for the entire duration of my thesis work. I am grateful to her for being not only a supervisor but also a good mentor for giving me valuable advice and freedom to explore my own ideas. I am indeed indebted to have a guide like her.

I cannot but be immensely thankful to all my family members, especially abbu, ammi elder brothers and “bhabhis” for being there with me always. As always it is their unconditional love and support that has motivated me to work harder on my thesis as well. My family is solely responsible for what I am and what I have achieved today. I thank God to have blessed my life with these sweet and loving people.

I am also sincerely grateful to Prof. Hamida Ahmad, Dr. Roomana Siddiqui and Dr. Shahina Maqbool who spared time from their busy schedule to review my thesis work for further improvisation.

If I am asked to name someone who, in the truest sense, has stood by me through thick and thin of this work, then it has to be my dearest friend and soon to be life-partner, Fouzia Alsabah Shaikh. I would like to say a very BIG “Thank you” for being what you are, a great friend, a researcher with immense potential and a great stress buster.

My heartfelt gratitude goes to my all “all weather friends” particularly Tauqeer, Saleem Bhai, Papaji, Aleem, Shahnawaz, Shahid, Akhlaq, Zulfi, Zia, Sam, Uncle, Banti and Bantu. Their company, an asset to die for, has indeed made my research work one of the most memorable phases of my life.

I cannot forget to mention my dear colleagues especially, Late Hassan, Ali, Maulana, Jassi, Dada, Roshan, Farah and Darakshan for the love they have always provided me. Thank you very much for your indefatigable help and support.

I also want to thank the non-teaching staff of my department especially, Aqeel bhai, Taj bhai, Aftab bhai, Majaz bhai and Shariq bhai for their help and encouragement during my thesis work.

Lastly, I would like to acknowledge and appreciate the administration and teachers of the schools who allowed me to visit the schools for survey. My sincere thanks also goes to all the students who responded to my request for information. Their kind and active co-operation ensured the smooth progress and completion of my thesis.
