ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In this world, no task can be accomplished without the help of the creator of this universe, who created man, taught the use of pen, taught to learn from nature, and taught man that which he knew not. I would like to place my everlasting gratitude to Almighty GOD, the most beneficent and merciful whose blessings gave me the required zeal for the completion of this work.

I feel privileged to express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my supervisor Dr. Sudharma Haridasan, Reader, who despite her busy schedule provided me all possible help, valuable guidance and perceptive advice whenever any hurdle came to deter my path in the completion of this work.
