ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I express my sincere gratitude to the Almighty God for showering me with all the blessings.

I especially thank my research Supervisor, Prof. N. Satyanarayana, for his guidance during my research and study at Pondicherry University. His perpetual energy and enthusiasm in research has motivated all his advisees, including me. In addition, he has always been accessible and willing to help me that paved the way for smooth research life and proved rewarding for me.

My warm and sincere thanks to Doctoral Committee members, Prof. T. K. Nambinarayanan, Department of Physics, Pondicherry University and Prof. S. Balasubramanyan, Department of Chemistry, Pondicherry Engineering College, not only for their detailed review and constructive criticism but also for their kind support throughout this work.

With sincere gratitude let me thank Prof. G. Govindraj, Head, Department of Physics, Pondicherry University, for extending his co-operation for completion of this work.

I express my deep sense of appreciation to all the faculty members and non-teaching staffs of Department of Physics for their timely assistance and support throughout my stay in Pondicherry University.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Dr. M. Venkateswarlu R & D, REC, Amara Raja Batteries Ltd, Tirupati for his encouragement, suggestion, and friendly approach during my research work.

“Simplicity Personified”- that is how one can describe Er. S. Ramasamy, technical officer, Central Instrumentation Facility, Pondicherry University. He deserves special thanks for his constant help and construction of my Instrument. He is always easily approachable and the suggestions given by him were invaluable.

Let me also take this opportunity to thank V. Carunagarane, S. Chinnadurai, R. Elumalai, R. Jeyanthi, P. Vikaraan and other staff members of Central Instrumentation Facility, Pondicherry University.

My thanks are due to Prof. N. Munidandaiah, Dept. Inorganic and Physical Chemistry, Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore, for providing the facilities for the standardisation of my homemade battery cycle tester.

I would like to thank Prof. Ajit R. Kulkarni, Department of Metallurgical Engineering & Materials Science, IIT, Mumbai, for helping me learn Dielectric Spectroscopy and Dr. T. Gnanasekaran, Head, Liquid Metals & Structural Chemistry Division, IGCAR, Kalpakkam, for having fruitful discussion during the research.
Moreover, I owe my most sincere gratitude to Dr. S Madhu, Instrumentation Division, CECRI, Karaikudi, and Dr. T. Prem Kumar, Electrochemical Power Systems Division, CECRI, Karaikudi, for their support throughout the work.

I thank DRDO, New Delhi for the financial support in the form of project Fellow and junior research fellow. I am also grateful to CSIR, DST, UGC and AICTE for utilizing the research facility available from the major research projects. I acknowledge to CIF Pondicherry University, for utilizing the sophisticated instrument facilities.

My sincere thanks to my lab mates Dr. S. Vivekanandhan, L. Prakash, N. Nallamuthu, Ramesh Kumar Peta, R. Indrajothy, O. Pacharaj, S. Visveswara and Paramanand Jena who have provided me with conducive environment and friendly attitude.

Also, I hereby owe a word of special thanks to all my friends Dr. A. Pradeep S. Sumathy, I. S. Karthikeyan, N. Parthiban, M. Sankaran, S. Mariappan, K. Durairaj, B. Balaji, U. Deevendrapathi, A. Vadivel, A. Senthilnath, J. Vikram S. Ramesh, A. Arul jacon, A. Alagar, N. Peter Lewis, T. Udayakumar, S. Bodalara, Shamugavel, Panner Muthasvam Matheeswaran, S. Vijayarath, R. Suresh Raja, K. Selva Kumar (late), for their sincere help and wholehearted support extended to me throughout my study.

It is a great honour for me to acknowledge my Grandfather Thiru, K. Perumal and Grandmother Thirumathi, Kamasala Perumal. I consider myself was very fortunate for being with them and want to show my sincere gratitude for their suggestions and encouragements in all walks of life.

It is pleasant occasion to show my courtesy in remembering my Appa, Amma, my brothers, my sisters and their family who showered me with all love and care. Once again I would like to thank my mother especially who stood by me at the time of crisis without whom this arduous task would not have been completed.

I am grateful to Dr. A. Prakasham, Mr. Santanil Selvan and their family for personally helping me in more difficult times.

Finally, I remember my dear wife R. Sandhanalakshmi for her love, support and trust in my abilities without her encouragement I would not have finished this thesis.
