Acknowledgements

Foremost, I would like to thank the Almighty for conferring me His mercy and benedictions

I would like to express my profound sense of gratitude and deepest admiration to my research supervisor Dr. Akram Javed, Reader, Department of Geology, Aligarh Muslim University, who exhorted and guided me with his exquisite observance and sapience throughout this research work. I am incessantly grateful to him for his extended steering, ceaseless boost and forbearance through the entire process of this thesis work. In true sense, I would have been lost without him. To me, he is not only a great advisor and reader, but also a great guardian. I thank him for all his encouragement and patience, his care, understanding and respect for his students. I believe I have greatly benefited from this opportunity to work with him and will continue to see that benefit through my entire career.

I wish to express my thanks to Dr. Shadab Khursheed, Chairman, Department of Geology, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, for providing me the facilities of the department during the course of my research work, which made this study possible.

It gives me colossal pleasure and privilege to express gratitude all those teachers who have taught me at various levels of my education. I owe my present position to them all.

I would also like to thank NRSC, Hyderabad, for providing satellite data, IMD, Pune, for giving meteorological data, various offices of Bayana, Bharatpur and Jaipur districts for rendering ancillary data and SRTM website for downloading digital elevation data.

I am highly thankful to the Dr. Aarendren, Director, and Krishna Raj, WWF, New Delhi, for their valuable guidance on image processing techniques.

I am highly indebted to the Principal Govt. Hr. Sec. School, Srugufwara Mr. Ab Hamid Rather, for his kind cooperation and support for the completion of this research work. Thanks are also due to Dr. Khursheed Ahmad (Lec.), Mr. Mohammad Ramzan (Mst.), Mohammad Yaqoob (Teac) and Mr. Mohd Shafi, other staff members are duly acknowledged.

Special thanks are due to Dr. Mohd Yousuf Khanday my friend and lab colleague for his unswerving support, expensive suggestions, and his companionship during field visits, he remained with me round the clock in every possible way during the course of this research work.

I feel privileged in expressing my sound sense of gratitude and indebtedness to Dr. Haris Hassan Khan, SRF at NGRJ, Hyderabad, for his help in using various softwares, providing pertinent literature, profitable discussions and suggestions during different stages of my research.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Mr. Imran Khan, lab colleague for his encouragement and company during field visit and investigations.

I owe thanks to my Lab. colleagues Sayema, Nazia for their encouragement, cooperation and support, thanks are also due to Suba, Nazrana, Prynaka the new entrants in the remote sensing and GIS lab.
I want to extend my gratitude to my dears Dr. Adil, Dr. Aamir, Dr. Showkat, Bilal Sonu, and all others who have given me all kinds of good suggestions.

I may not remember the names of all the persons who in one way or the other helped me during my studies but I am thankful to them and obliged to all of them.

I also express my thanks to non-teaching staff especially Mr. Sarfaraz Ali Khan, Dr. S. M. Ashgar Rizvi and Wasi bhai for their help and constant encouragement extended to me during my research work.

I convey my meticulous thanks to Syed Mohammad Waseem my roommate for his companionship, support during my entire course of this research work. Thanks are also due to Aftab Aalam for providing accommodation at my peak period of research.

The financial assistance received first from the department as Junior Research fellow and later on under UGC fellowship scheme from the University Grants Commission are greatly acknowledged.

Sincere thanks are due to Intikhab bhai, Asloob (Lec.), and Irfan (Lec.) for their cooperation and honorable support. Thanks are also due to the all relatives who have supported my family during my absence at home.

I don’t find suitable words that can fully describe my thanks to my Brother in law Mr. Mohi Yaqoob (Bhai sb), who sacrificed a lot of time at my home during my absence, at the crest period of my research.

My deepest gratitude goes to my parents for their indefatigable care and support throughout my life. I find no suitable words that can amply describe everlasting affectionateness of my beloved mother (Mama) for me. I am obliged to my sister (Didi) who sacrificed a lot and endured my long absence. I am grateful to my father (Dady) who worked tirelessly throughout his life to support the family and spared no effort to provide the best possible environment for my upbringing. It is all due to their sacrifices that made the completion of this work possible.
