ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Research highlights various aspects of an issue. It enlightens the educationists about different ways in which they can improve the system of education. It helps them to prepare the adolescents for their academic future, for their future profession and for life in general.

Gratefulness cannot be expressed merely in words to different people who extended their help and cooperation in order to complete this work. The words that follow express my deep sense of indebtedness towards them.

I am extremely grateful to my supervisor Professor C.P.S. Chauhan for helping and encouraging me to complete my work successfully. His meticulous suggestions at various stages of research have facilitated the outcome of a systematic presentation of the work. His guidance has helped me to enhance my work to a great extent.

I am thankful to all the staff members of the Department of Education, A.M.U. for their moral support. I would also like to thank the librarians of the Seminar Library, (Department of Education, A.M.U.) as well as that of the Maulana Azad Library, A.M.U. for providing me various books, journals, etc. connected with my work.

I would like to express gratitude to Dr. Sudha Mathur (I.C.S.S.R., New Delhi), the librarians of the I.C.S.S.R. and N.C.E.R.T., New Delhi and Dr. Muthaiyya Koganuramath (Librarian, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai) for providing me the latest journals as well as other reading materials related to my topic.
My special thanks to the subjects who cooperated with me to give all the data. I would also like to express my gratitude towards the principals as well as teachers of all the schools from which data has been collected without whose cooperation I could not have completed my work. I am grateful to Mohd. Asif Khan, U.D.C. as well as the entire office staff for their help and support.
