ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I owe a debt of gratitude to a number of people for the completion of this thesis. Undertaking a controversial topic like this would not have been possible without both the moral and intellectual support of my supervisor Prof. Mahmudul Haq. I am also grateful to Prof. M.A. Saleem Khan, Director, Centre of West Asian Studies who helped me in so many ways. I wish to record my gratitude to Prof. M. Nejatullah Siddiqi for making me available some important materials on the subject. My thanks are especially due to Dr. Darwish S. Jastaneiah, Director, Centre for Research in Islamic Economics, Jeddah, who provided me with necessary materials. I will be failing in my duty if I did not express my thanks to Dr. A.A. Islahi for sending much of the necessary material from Saudi Arabia. My thanks are also due to Mr. M.S. Shaghil for his constructive comments on my thesis. I must express thanks to Library staff of West Asian Studies for their help and cooperation during the preparation of work. Mr. Ishtiaq Danish and Sabahuddin Azmi have done the painstaking work of proof reading and making intelligible remarks. I am also grateful to them. My deep appreciation is due to Mr. S.M. Ali who took special care in typing the thesis.
