ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Acknowledgement is not only a ritual but also an expression of indebtedness to all those who have helped in the completion process of the thesis. One of the most pleasant aspects in collecting the necessary and vital information and compiling it, is the opportunity to thank all those, who have actively contributed to it.

I am really fortunate to be placed under the able guidance of Dr. Bindu. R.L., Associate Professor, Department of Education, University of Kerala, Thiruvananthapuram to undertake the present research work for Ph.D. It is my distinct honour and proud privilege to acknowledge my heartiest gratitude to my esteemed teacher and worthy supervisor. Her expert guidance and vast experience have contributed great extent to complete this work. Her generous attitude, support and constant encouragement enabled me to clear many hurdles. Without her support, this work would not have been possible. I am thankful to her, for her intellectual guidance during the course of this work.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude and deep regards to my co-guide Dr. B. William Dharma Raja, Assistant Professor(Stage III), Department of Education, Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, Tirunelveli for his timely guidance, priceless assistance and encouragement throughout the course of this research work.

I extend my sincere gratitude to the officials of IGNOU at the Regional Centre, Trivandrum, PICs of IGNOU Programme Study Centres, for the help they rendered in collecting data for this research work, and to the teacher trainees who have responded to my questionnaire.
My hearty thanks also to Dr. B. Krishna Prasad, Principal, S. T. Hindu College of Education, Nagercoil for his inspiration and encouragement.

I am also thankful to Dr. R. Sreeletha, Principal, M.E.T College of Education, Chenbagaramanaputhur, for the help she rendered for this research work.

I am also obliged to N.V.K.S.D College of Education, Attoor for permitting me to use their resources for the completion of this research work. I sincerely thank the Principal Dr. B.C. Sobha for the support extended for this study.

Besides I am grateful to Shri. S. Parthiban, for all the help he has graciously given to me, and for his constructive suggestions and support throughout my research work.

I express my fervent gratitude to my brother Dr. B. Sukumar, for his cordial support, continuous motivation and valuable excoriation at various stages, which helped me in completing this research in the right direction.

I express my special thanks to my parents, my husband Shri. D. Ramesh and my loving children Abilash and Aarya for their constant support and encouragement. Words alone are not sufficient to express my feelings about my immense gratitude that I owe to my dear parents and family members for their love, deep affection, heartfelt blessings and ever encouraging moral support.

Above all, I am grateful to God Almighty who sustains this beautiful world and without whose grace, nobody can ever succeed.

B. KUMARI ASHA
