ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the moment when the final draft of my thesis is ready for typing, I feel it my foremost duty to thank people who had been a constant source of encouragement and were helpful to me in different ways. This acknowledgment should naturally begin with thanking my parents who encouraged me to join Aligarh Muslim University as research student since the Department of History is well-known for secular and scientific research as well as for reputed scholars in various fields of history. I am really indebted to them who taught me dedication and sincerity to work which enabled me to complete this tedious task.

My father Mr. Shakeel Khan, is a man of great understanding who very kindly and graciously agreed to send me to Aligarh for further studies. His idea of sending me to Aligarh was further strengthened by uncles Janab Mr. Faruq Khan, Mr. Ghulam Sabir Khan, Mr. Aqil Khan and Mr. Jameel Khan have been always very affectionate to me.

I owe much to my uncle Professor Syed Iqbal Ali, Principal of University Boys Polytechnic, who introduced me to this great institution of learning. Not only this but he very kindly went through the entire text of my thesis and extended very valuable suggestions and took care of me as a true guardian since my arrival at Aligarh. His love and affection is unforgettable. I have also received constant encouragement from my aunt Professor Iffat Ara all these years.

Next to my parents, I would like to thank my supervisor Prof. B.L. Bhadani. My research theme for the Ph.D. thesis is chosen by him keeping science background and my interest in the field work in mind. First, the region of Bundelkhand has yet not received due attention of scholars and second, since I belong to this region my general familiarity of this region is naturally more than a person coming from other region and this would naturally develop my interest to delve deep in this field for bringing out the history of my own region. His personal care stands next to my parents. My gratitude to him is beyond the reach of expression.

Dr. S.L.H. Moini has been constantly encouraging me in my research and very generously placed at my disposal the books which I needed for my research. Besides this, he has also entertained me by offering refreshment and gave me friendly atmosphere. Dr. Mohd. Afzal Khan has always been ready to offer his suggestions and comments on the aspects of architecture on which he commands authority.

I am grateful to Professor Tariq Ahmad, Chairman for his kind heartedness and affection towards me. He has been always cooperative and supportive.

I found a very congenial atmosphere here and everyone of them are cordial and helpful. They gave useful advices to me whenever I requested. I am particularly thankful to Dr. Ali Athar, Dr. Hasan Imam, Dr. M.K. Pundir, Dr. Syed Bashir Hasan, Dr. O.P. Shrivastav and Dr. Vinod Kumar Singh.

I would like to express my gratitude to Professor Ravindra Kumar of IGNOU, New Delhi, gave me ungruding academic help. His suggestions proved beneficial to me. Mr. K.K. Mohd. is an expert in Medieval Archaeology gave me suggestion of immense value. Nirat Didi’s support and inspiration is an asset for me. She has always treated me as her younger sister.

Dr. Sumbul Haleem Khan always encouraged me in my research. I am extremely grateful to Dr. Rashmi Upadhyaya for helping me in explaining Sanskrit inscriptions of the Chandela period. As a teacher and a friend she always helped me in many ways.

I would like to place on record my special gratitude to Dr. Ram Narayan Sharma and his wife Dr. Shushila Sharma, Jhansi for providing me material and affection both. Dr. Sharma also provided me a platform to speak on my topic. He also introduced me to Maharaja Madhukar Shah Ju Dev of Tikamgarh.

The discussion with Dr. S.D. Guru, a repository of knowledge, enlightened me immensely and benefitted a lot. I will remember his affection forever which he showered upon me.

Similarly, Dr. Hari Vishnu Awasthi, furnished me photocopies of many rare books for which I would always remain grateful to him. J.S. Rawat and S.K. Tiwari helped me in many ways for this I express my gratitude to both of them.

Mr. Ghanshyam Singh Bundela belongs to royal family of Datia, shared his knowledge about the waterbodies of the Chandelas. He showed us the present fort and allowed us to survey the structures in the complex.

Shri Prithvi Singh Bundela (Babbaju) a scion of an erstwhile royal family of Chhatarpur I find in him a noble and humble person. I expressly my gratitude to him.
And how can I forget the affection showered upon me by Dr. Govind Singh Bundela and Mrs. Asha Bundela of Chhatarpur. I would like to express my gratitude to Dr. Singh who gave me chance to present a paper on environment in the seminar organized by the faculty of Science.

Shri Vasudev Chaurasia of Mahoba, a very energetic and erudite scholar is an authority on the history of the Chandelas. He very kindly extended his cooperation for which I would always remain grateful to him.

During the course of my study I visited various institutions, archives and personal libraries and collections. The authorities and staff these particularly Library of Bundelkhand University- Jhansi, Rajasthan State Archives-Bikaner, State Archives-Lucknow, Natnagar Shodh Sansthan-Sitamau, Kaveri Shodh Sansthan-Ujjain, Keshav Shodh Sansthan- Orchha, Bundeli Shodh Sansthan-Seohra, B.D. Gupta Memorial Library-Jhansi and the personal library and collection of Dr. Hari Vishnu Awasthi, Dr. J.C. Upadhyaya and Dr. Suresh Mishra deserve my sincere thanks and many others.

Among them Dr. Manohar Singh Ranawat, Dr. S.S. Nigam, O.P. Diwedi, Dr. Shyam Bihari Srivastaw, Dr. Sudha Gupta and Dr. Suresh Mishra had been very cooperative to me and provided a comfortable stay to work on. I am deeply indebted to all of them. They did a lot for me which I cannot forget throughout my life.

The staff of the library of my department as well as Maulana Azad Library of the University deserve my special thanks who were always helpful to me during the course of material collection and preparation of the bibliography.

I am grateful to Mr. Zameer Ahmad, who made ground plans of almost all the buildings surveyed by me. Mr. Faiz Habib, has drawn all the maps for which I am grateful to him.

I would like to thanks my senior colleagues Dr. Jibraiel, Dr. Athar Hussain and Bashir Shaekh, and my friends Ms. Sadaf, Tuhina, Nikhat and Tahira.

I should like to thank Mr. H.K. Sharma for doing very tedious job of computer typing and setting of photographs in the text. I am especially grateful to him for bearing with patience my constant alterations.
