Acknowledgement

I am highly obliged to my revered supervisor Dr. Fakhruddin, whose able guidance throughout the compilation of this thesis has made it possible to bring it in the present form. Words are scarce to express the indebtedness for him who bestowed me with all possible help. I would like to pay my heartiest gratitude in honour of Dr. Abdul Munir, Reader, Department of Geography, AMU, Aligarh. He has shown great emotional attachment with me and has opened the horizon of his knowledge whenever I was in need.

This study would never have been undertaken but for the vision of Prof. Abha Lakshmi Singh who has not only expressed her deep concern with this research work but also encouraged me from time to time.

I am principally indebted to Prof. Ali Mohammad, Chairman, Department of Geography and Prof. Sami Ahmed, Department of Geology, AMU, Aligarh for their kind and sympathetic attention towards the work.

It is indeed a matter of great pleasure for me to record my special thanks to S.N. Pandey, Reader, Department of Geography, University of Bhagalpur. It is in my duty to thank Dr. Syed Ekhtiyar Ali who has performed the role of a catalyst in renewing my strength in pursuit of this research.

It is an essential part of this account to name the dearest friends Saifullah Saifi, Sabahuddin and Mahtab Alam. At the same time I have no words to thank Ms. Siraj Fatima who loved me enormously and sisterly.

I cannot resist the desire to express my sincere thanks to Mahjabeen and Noor Saher who accompanied me throughout the course of this study and have been a source of massive delight for four years.

I feel it obligatory to thank Mr. Naseemul Islam, Librarian, Research Division, Department of Geography, AMU, for his whole hearted cooperation and noble behave. I owe much to my close friend Taiyab Husain, who has taken too much pain in typing the nice piece of thesis.

Thanks are also due to Dy. Librarian, JNU, New Delhi, Dy. Librarian, Central Library, Bhagalpur, Dy. Commissioner of Municipal Corporation, Bhagalpur and other staffs and authorities.

Further, I would like to express my special thanks to my junior research fellows who have remained emotionally attached to me and paid me the degree of respect and regard for what I hardly deserved.

Last, but not the least, I endeavour to express tremendous amount of love and affection to my brothers and other family members.
