Acknowledgement

I dedicate this work to my parents. Whatever I have achieved in life is the result of their perseverance, sacrifice, support, encouragement and love. Their long cherished dream of seeing their son earn a doctorate degree has been fulfilled. I am grateful to God for this.

I started this piece of research work on Hanif Kureishi after being introduced to his writings by Dr. Asim Siddiqui, my teacher and mentor. Dr. Siddiqui provided me with guidance and encouragement from the initial stages while deciding the topic of my research to the final stages till its submission. He always spared his valuable time to read my work patiently and provided his expert feedback often with strong criticism. Without his guidance this work would not have been possible. I express my deepest sense of gratitude to him.

I would like to acknowledge specially Professor Emeritus Farhatullah Khan, Professor A.R. Kidwai, Professor Sohail Ahsan and Professor S.N. Zeba for their most valuable suggestions and encouragement. They kept enquiring about the progress of my work which enabled me to expedite the speed of the study and finish it on time.

My sincere thanks to Dr. Amirullah Khan, Dr. Muneera T., Dr. Raashid Nehal and Dr. Akbar Joseph J. A. Syed, for their constant support and words of wisdom that helped me in crucial moments of my life and made this academic exercise smooth and pleasurable. I must mention the names of Dr. Seemin Hasan, Dr. Raihan Raza, Dr. M.R. Shujaib, Dr. Samina Khan, Dr. Sami Rafique, Dr. Shehla Ghauri and Dr. Rashmi Atri for their encouragement and good counsel.
I must thank my wife, Mrs. Nahid Anwar and her family for constant support and love that kept me in good spirit to continue and complete my research work. I must mention the name of our son Ayaan with whom we have been blessed at the last stage of my research work. The newborn has brought me immense joy and added new energy in me. Besides the names mentioned above, I would like to thank all my friends and colleagues who inspired me to finish the research at the earliest and a special note of thanks to all those who in some way or the other helped me complete my thesis on time.
