ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It has indeed been a great pleasure working with Prof. Debendra Kumar Nayak, Department of Geography, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong, and completing my research on “Demographic Consequences of Ethnic Conflict on Santhal Women in Bodo Areas of Assam: A Case Study of Kokrajhar District”, since my research was not an easy task. I wish to acknowledge my indebtedness and sincere gratitude to my teacher and supervisor Prof. Debendra Kumar Nayak, for his enduring support and valuable advice in formulating and designing my research, developing a critical outlook and in getting fresh insights into the problem. It is his continuous inspiration and encouragement, which enabled me to bring my ideas in a presentable form.

My heartily thanks go to Dr. Aparesh Patra (Rolta Thales Ltd, Mumbai) Dr. Tapan Chakraborty, (Reader. in Statistics, NEHU) and Let Prof. R. Gopalakrishnan (Department of Geography, NEHU) for helping me to develop my research design and proper explanation.

I owe a sense of gratitude to the all faculty members and non-teaching staff of the Department of Geography, N. E. H. U. for providing me with the entire infrastructure during my research work.

I am personally grateful to each one of my friends, Mr. Danny M Synnah, Mr. Prasenjit Das, and other friends in our department who went out of their way to help me complete my work in time. I would also like to acknowledge my indebtedness to all staff of BTC, Kokrajhar, especially Mr. Biplab De and other officers for providing me with all the necessary data/information for purpose of the research.
I am thankful for the ready assistance extended to me by the Mr. Ashish K. Bhutani, Deputy Commissioner, Kokrajhar and other officials, Mr. Sujit Baglari, Mr. Tridib K Chakraborty and Mr. Rinay Basumatary, Lecturer in Geography, Gossaigaon College; Mr. Mukut Sharma and Miss Rupa De, Mr. Pintu Chakroborty and Mr. Tudu for providing all necessary help during the field survey and to all respondents from relief camps and rehabilitated villages who had answered my questionnaire.

I would also like to express my gratitude to my family members, especially my parents (Mr. Deepak Kumar Satpati and Ms. Meera Satpati) for their enduring support and my only sister Shraddha. However, the responsibility for errors and omissions are entirely authors.
