ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It gives me immeasurable pleasure to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to my Research Supervisor Dr. N. Rajendhiran, M.B.A., Ph.D., Prof-Cum-Director, PRIMS, Periyar University, Salem, Tamil Nadu for his excellent guidance, constant encouragement, patience and care during the entire completion of this thesis.

I express my heartfelt thanks to the heads of management studies and the faculty as well as the students who had given valuable inputs to prepare this research report. I also thank the respective managements of the following engineering colleges for having permitted me to administer the questionnaire to their M.B.A. students:

1. Sri Sai Ram Engineering College, Chennai - 600 044
2. S.K.R. Engineering College, Chennai - 600 123
3. S.A. Engineering College, Chennai - 600 077
4. DMI College of Engineering, Chennai - 602 103
5. R.M.K. Engineering College, Chennai - 601 206

I appreciate Mrs. D.T. Roshini, Director, Versatile Business School for her valuable input and guidance.

I thank my colleagues Ms. S. Sathushra who assisted me in editing and typing this research report and Mr. P. Justin Vimal Raj in associating to collect research data.

I acknowledge the overwhelming support extended by my beloved wife and daughter without which this research report would not have been materialized.

I dedicate my Ph.D. work to (late) Prof. R. Poornachandra Rao, who did MBA at Wharton School of Business, Pennsylvania, U.S. and (late) Dr. K.M. Thiagarajan, who did MBA and Ph.D. at the University of Pittsburgh, US. Prof. R. Poornachandra Rao was my Mentor and Dean, at Thiagarajar School of Management, Madurai, India and Dr. K.M. Thiagarajan was my Chairman, Bank of Madura Ltd., India who had given me ample opportunities and guidance to handle high value projects in the bank.
