ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This academic pursuit drew inspirations from many sources besides those names appear in this acknowledgement. It is the pleasant privilege to place on record my sincere gratitude to those inspired and helped me in the endeavour.

I acknowledge most gratefully my deep indebtedness to my guide, supervisor and guru Prof. (Dr.) P.V Ouseph, who has been a constant source of inspiration and encouragement. His timely guidance and reinforcements at each stage helped me to shape the frame work of the study and its details. His immense knowledge and willingness to impart the knowledge to the future generations are laudable. I am greatly benefited and indebted to him for his guidance, encouragement and help.
I acknowledge my sincere gratitude to Late. Brahmasri Kanipayoor Krishnan Namboodiripad, Udayamperoor, for his magnanimity in teaching the basics of vijstuvidya in the traditional way and accepting me as his favoured disciple.

I acknowledge gratefully to Dr. Babu. T. Jose, Dr. TThrivikaran, Dr. Benny Mathew Abrarabah, Dr. M.V Vishnu Namboodiri, Dr. C.V Lal, Brahmasri Cherooli Narayanan Namboodiri, Dr. A Achuthan and Dr. Balagopal T.S Prabhu for their help and encouragement.

I have to place on record my sincere thanks to several tantries, priests, temple authorities, engineers, architects and vijstu experts, artisans jcaris who willingly cooperated with me and gave me requisite information and data concerned with the study. Their contributions towards the study are gratefully acknowledged.
I express my gratitude to the authorities of Sree Sankaracharya University of Sanskrit, Kalady for providing me the opportunity to do full time research leading to the Ph.D. Degree.

I am thankful to the professors of IIT, Chennai, Prof.(Dr.) Mathews M.S and Prof. (Dr.) Mehar Prasad for providing valuable information about the structural analysis being carried out on monumental structures.

I am also thankful to the library authorities of CUSAT, Kochi, Sukrindra Oriental Language Research Institute, Kochi, Kerala University Library, Changapuzha Smaraka Library, Vastuvidy Pratistanam Library, Archeological Society of India, Chennai, Trissur and Thiruvananthropuram.

I am ever grateful to many ladies and gentlemen who responded to my inquiries which helped me in the endeavour.

Vamanan Namboodiri, V.E
