Acknowledgement

Thanks to Almighty Allah who gave me the power and strength to complete this document.

I am grateful to my Supervisor Dr. Jamal A. Khan for his esteemed guidance and providing all the facilities needed to complete my work. All his suggestions and discussions were of immense value in streamlining my study.

My sincere thanks to all of my other teachers Dr. Afifuallah Khan and Dr. Satish Kumar, Prof. H. S. A. Yahya, for their valuable suggestions and support.

Financial support for this study came from University Grant Commission (UGC), which provided me the research fellowship that take care of most of my personal expenses. I thank this agency for their support.

In Dudhwa the hospitality and affection of Mr Billy Arjun Singh provided good change from monotony of field work. Passionate discussion with Billy and his knowledge of Dudhwa were of immense help in getting a better insight into the Park.

This study would not have been possible without the help of the Forest department of Uttar Pradesh and I thank Mr. Mohd Ahsan, A.C.C.F, UP for permitting me to work in Dudhwa. Thanks are due to Mr M. P. Singh, Director Dudhwa Tiger Reserve, for his valuable support. I wish to place sincere thanks to Mr. P. P. Singh, Deputy Director Dudhwa Tiger Reserve, who was highly co-operative and supportive during the study and for showing keen interest in the progress of work. This work would not have been successfully completed without the sincere support of the Wildlife wardens, Rangers, Foresters, Forest guards and the Field staff of Dudhwa Tiger Reserve. I am thankful to a whole staff at Sonaripur, Sathiana, Dudhwa, Solukapur as it is beyond the scope to mention them all. At solukapur, mahouts Lallan, Idris and Arshad were of great help and were ever ready to take me into the Rhino enclosure, I thank them all. I offer my sincere thanks to Mr Naseem(Park guide) and his son Bablu who showed great affection and treated me as his family member throughout my study.

Special thanks to Bilal Habib and Tanweer Ahmed for their help in data analyses and for their very constructive comments on the draft of this manuscript. Both of them were constant source of my inspiration whenever I lost my temper. Their critical comments not only helped in the preparation of this draft but also helpful in my personal life to get me out in difficult situation. Dear Dr Bill and Dr Nill really you are great.
I am particularly thankful to Dr P.K Mathur, Dr S.P Sinha, Dr Uniyal for their encouragement during their visit in the field. I have great appreciation for Dr Ravi Sankaran for his discussion and suggestions.

I have a great appreciation for Dr S.P.S Kushwaha of IIRS for his valuable discussion during his visit in the field and sending me study material. I am also thankful to Dr Ashfaq Zarri for his continuous support throughout my study.

I appreciate the help of Dr Athar Ali for identifying the grasses collected during the study. I am also thankful to my classmates Nasir, Kamlesh, Rohit, Zaiben, Vyom for their advice and support. Many thanks to my friends Javed, Upimanyu Hore, Neha Midha, Shipra Verma, Iftikar, Irfan, Tahir. Special thanks to Dr Harish Gularia project co-ordinator WWF India for his encouragement and help during my interaction with him in the field. I am also thankful to my seniors Usham, Sharad and my juniors Athar, shamshad, Ashwaria, Meraj, Shilpi, Andleeb, Tanusheri. Thanks are also due to Msc final and previous batch for their support.

Thanks are due to my field assistant Ram Kumar, Radhay Sham, Ram Niwas, Lela Dhar, and Vijay Kumar for their help in conducting the field work. At the Wildlife department I thank Dr Iqbal Imam, Mustafa Kamal, Anjum, Moonis, Chotey Khan, Syed, Tanveer, Azeem, Ghaffar, Arshad and Nadeem.

Last but not the least this work would not have been possible without the blessings and support of my parents, sisters, brothers and dear ones. They have been a constant source of inspiration for me, and they did not mind my long absence from home and also for the problems faced because of me. Today what I am is all due to their great care and concern, through enormous patience. I dedicate them everything of mine. Special thanks to my mamu Gulzar Ahmed Mir for his continuous encouragement and support from my childhood for shaping my career in right direction.

I want to put my heartest thanks to Saima for her affection and care. Thanks for accepting me the way I am with all my faults and weakness. Thanks for being with me in my ups and downs. Your presence around gives me reasons to smile.

Acknowledging contributions is an important exercise as research involves help and assistance from numerous individuals and agencies. To list them all is an enormous task. I, to the best of my memory, tried to mention all those who contributed in one way or another towards the completion of this document. In doing so I might have missed some names, more because of lapse of memory than anything else and wish to thank al those who are victim of such human memory.
