ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am sincerely grateful to Dr. Mathew Joseph, my esteemed teacher and research guide, whose constant encouragement and enlightening guidance decisively helped me throughout the course of my research.

I owe a major debt of gratitude to Bishops Dr. Joseph Pallickaparampil and Dr. Yoohanon Mor Militius for their encouragement and support.

I am also greatly obliged to the Principal and the Head of the Research Department of English, St. Thomas College, Palai. No less is my gratitude to the UGC for the award of a Teacher Fellowship and to the Manager and the Principal, Deva Matha
College, Kuravilangad, for sparing my services to complete this work.

Similarly, I extend my thanks to Dr. James N. Loughran, S. J. and Dr. John Kerry the president and the librarian respectively of St. Peter's College, Kennedy Boulevard, Jersey City, USA, for generously allowing me to use their library facilities to carry out my research. I am also grateful to the librarians of Mahatma Gandhi University Kottayam, St. Thomas College Palai, and IACIS Hyderabad.

I gratefully acknowledge the help rendered by Rev. George Joseph Kalappura, Rev. Andres J. Reyes and my friends and relations in the United States.

My colleagues Rev. Dr. Joseph J. Puthumana and Dr. T.T Thomas have been particularly helpful to me.
With profound sentiments of love I acknowledge the endearing affection and earnest prayers of my wife, child, parents, and the other members of the family.

Above all, I thank God Almighty, the giver of all wisdom, for enabling me to complete this work.

Fr. Augustine Mathew P.
