ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

A journey in Serenity, a term I would like to coin for the absolute tranquillity, the peaceful atmosphere in the Punjabi University Patiala. Indeed it was a pleasant experience to be with this university for the completion of my Ph.D. It is not a mere formality that I penned down in these words, but it is from the deepest core of my heart that I want to say thanks to all those who have been helping hand in the completion of my research.

“Noble Deeds that are conceded are most esteemed”. This dissertation would not have been possible without the guidance and help of several individuals who in one way or another contributed and extended their valuable assistance in the preparation and completion of this study.

First and foremost, my utmost gratitude to my supervisor, Dr Ran Singh Dhaliwal, Professor, School of Management Studies who walked along with me as my mentor in this journey, guiding, supporting, criticizing and sharing with me his profound wisdom, knowledge and affection. The personality par excellence in the field of management research and his deep insight in the subject motivated me to select the specific study. It was due to his guidance and expertise, for being firm and resolute and yet caring during our discussion stage and having made time to critically evaluate and edit my thesis with an unparallel sense of commitment. It was for his moral support and care that has made it possible for me to attain this stage of academic achievement in my life.

I would like to express my heartiest gratitude to Dr. Gurdip Singh Batra, Professor and Head, and Dr. Pushpinder Singh Gill, Professor, School Of Management Studies, Punjabi University, Patiala for their unwavering support during my years of study.

I feel privileged and honoured to acknowledge my tremendous indebtedness to Dr. Amanpreet Singh, for his valuable suggestions and analytical contribution that went a long way in giving this study its present shape.

I will be failing in my duties if I do not thank all those authors and researchers from whose works I have refereed extensively I would like to express my appreciation to the managers of the Banks and Insurance organizations who spared their valuable time to give me the required information during the research work. I am highly grateful to all the respondents who shared their views openly which led me to make ultimate conclusions.

I am equally grateful to all Librarians and supporting staff of the libraries of Punjabi University, Punjab, Kurukshetra and Guru Nanak Dev University, who have been very cooperative and liberal in extending their much needed support for different aids and materials for the completion of my research.

I am helpless to express my heartiest thanks to my husband, Adv. Sukhjinder Singh, for his unflagging love and support throughout my life. I would like to thank my parents, Mrs. Kavaljeet kaur and S. Gurinder Singh for keeping me in their prayers all the time and inspiring me through their love and blessings.

My deepest gratitude goes to my Mother and Father in-law, Mrs. Ravinder Kaur and S. Harcharan Singh, this dissertation would not have been simply possible without them both. Their encouragement, prayers, interest and belief in me helped me persevere during the tougher times when giving up would have been the simpler option!

I wish to convey my utmost love and appreciation for my two years old daughter, Gurnaaz, for patiently staying away from me, giving me sufficient time to compile my thesis particularly during the time when she needed me the most. She forms the backbone of my strength and the origin of my happiness.

Last but not the least, above all, no venture can be completed without the blessings of Almighty. I consider it my bounded duty to bow to the Almighty whose kind blessings always inspired me to walk in the right direction and have given me the vigor to fulfill the dreams of my family.

Finally, I would like to thank everybody who was important to the successful realization of this thesis, as well as expressing my apology that I could not mention their names personally one by one.

(Jasleen Kaur)