A STUDY OF ORGANIZATIONAL CLIMATE
AND TEACHER MORALE IN COLLEGES OF EDUCATION

(Only for Ph.D. Research)

Guide:
Professor D. M. Desai
Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology, Baroda.

Investigator:
Kum. Ivy Franklin
Teacher Fellow, CASE

Dear Friend,

Improvement of teacher education has a number of focal points. Recent researches have shown that qualities of leadership, teacher morale and organizational climate of schools and colleges are highly correlated with diffusion of innovations and change and staff-student motivation and achievement. They constitute some of the 'essentials' or pre-requisites to strengthen and enrich academic instruction or professional training in our institutions.

The present study is designed in this perspective. You can be a participant in this venture of faith by giving your full and frank responses to these questionnaires. Kindly treat this as professional work and unhesitatingly co-operate. This booklet contains three Questionnaires. The items describe typical behaviour and conditions that occur in a college of education. There are no right or wrong responses. Please indicate your response as directed.

All responses will be strictly confidential.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PRECIOUS COOPERATION.
ORGANIZATIONAL CLIMATE OF COLLEGES OF EDUCATION

(Adaptation of the OCDQ by Andrew W. Halpin and Don B. Croft)

Form IV

The Questionnaire is prepared to secure a total "feel" and "atmosphere" of the College of Education and the various conditions under which the teachers work. The items in this Questionnaire describe typical behaviours or conditions that occur within a teachers' college organization. The respondents are the teacher educators in colleges of education. Your responses to these items will indicate to what extent each of these descriptions characterizes your college.

Please be sure that you mark each Item.

Out of the four choices given for each of the following items, please select ONE (and only one) and put a circle around the number indicating the choice. The choices given are:

(1) rarely occurs
(2) sometimes occurs
(3) often occurs
(4) very frequently occurs

Printed below is an example of a typical item found in this Questionnaire.

EXAMPLE: Each teacher spends his recess time by himself. 1 (2) 3 4

In this example the respondent marked alternative (2) to show the interpersonal relationship described by this item "sometimes occurs" at this college. Of course, any of the other alternative could be selected, depending upon how often the behaviour described by the item does indeed occur in your college.

Please mark your response clearly as in the Example

Name of the College: ...................................................... City: .................
Your Educational Qualification: ............................................... Age: .................
Teaching Experience: ............................................................... Sex: Male/Female

54. Our college staff has a tendency to form into cliques.
55. The teachers in our college work well together.
56. I am at a disadvantage professionally because other teachers are better prepared to teach than I am.
57. Our college provides adequate clerical services for the teachers.
58. As far as I know, the other teachers think I am a good teacher.
59. Library facilities and resources are adequate for the subject area which I teach.
60. The "stress and strain" resulting from teaching and supervision work makes teacher teaching undesirable for me.
61. My principal is concerned with the problems of the staff and handles these problems sympathetically.
62. I do not hesitate to discuss any college problem with my principal.
63. College teaching gives me the prestige I desire.
64. My teacher education job enables me to provide a satisfactory standard of living for my family.
65. The salary schedule in our college adequately recognizes teacher competency.
66. Most of the people in this district understand and appreciate good teacher education.
67. In my judgment, this management is good to build up a career.
68. This community respects its teachers and treats them like professional persons.
69. My principal acts as though he is interested in me and my problems.

70. My college principal supervises rather than “snoopervises” the teachers in our college.

71. It is difficult for teachers to gain acceptance by the people in this community.

72. Teachers’ meetings as now conducted by our principal waste the time and energy of the staff.

73. My principal has a reasonable understanding of the problems connected with my teaching and training assignment.

74. I feel that my work is judged fairly by my principal.

75. Salaries paid in this college compare favourably with salaries in other colleges with which I am familiar.

76. Most of the actions of student-teachers irritate me.

77. The cooperativeness of teachers in our college helps make my work more enjoyable.

78. My students regard me with respect and seem to have confidence in my professional ability.

79. The purposes and objectives of the college cannot be achieved by the present curriculum.

80. The teachers in our college have a desirable influence on the values and attitudes of their students.

81. This community expects its teachers to meet unreasonable personal standards.

82. My students appreciate the help I give them with their training work.

83. To me there is no more challenging work than teaching and teacher training.

84. Other teachers in our college are appreciative of my work.

85. As a teacher in this community, my non-professional activities outside of college are unduly restricted.

86. As a teacher, I think I am as competent as most other teachers.

87. The teachers with whom I work have high professional ethics.

88. Our college teacher education programme does a good job of preparing student teachers to become enlightened and competent classroom teachers.

89. I really enjoy working with my students.

90. The teachers in our college show a great deal of initiative and creativity in their teaching assignments.
91. Teachers in our community feel free to discuss controversial issues in their classes.

92. My principal tries to make me feel comfortable when he visits my classes or practice teaching schools.

93. My principal makes effective use of the individual teacher's capacity and talent.

94. The people in this community, generally, have a sincere and wholehearted interest in the teacher education system.

95. Teachers feel free to go to the principal about problems of personal group welfare.

96. This Management supports ethical procedures regarding the appointment and re-appointment of members of the teaching staff.

97. This Management is willing to support a good programme of teacher education.

98. Our Management expects the teachers to participate in too many social activities.

99. Community pressures prevent me from doing my best as a teacher.

100. I am well satisfied with my present teaching position.

LEADERSHIP BEHAVIOUR DESCRIPTION QUESTIONNAIRE

(Adaptation of the LBDQ by Andrew W. Halpin and Don B. Croft.)

Instructions

In this questionnaire, there are thirty short, descriptive statements of ways in which leaders may behave. You will indicate the frequency with which the leader engages in each form of behaviour by checking one of the five adverbs: Always, often, occasionally, seldom, or never; and then encircling the number. For example.

1. He keeps to himself 1 2 3 (4) 5

Here the response indicates that the leader keeps to himself ‘seldom’ which is number 4.
